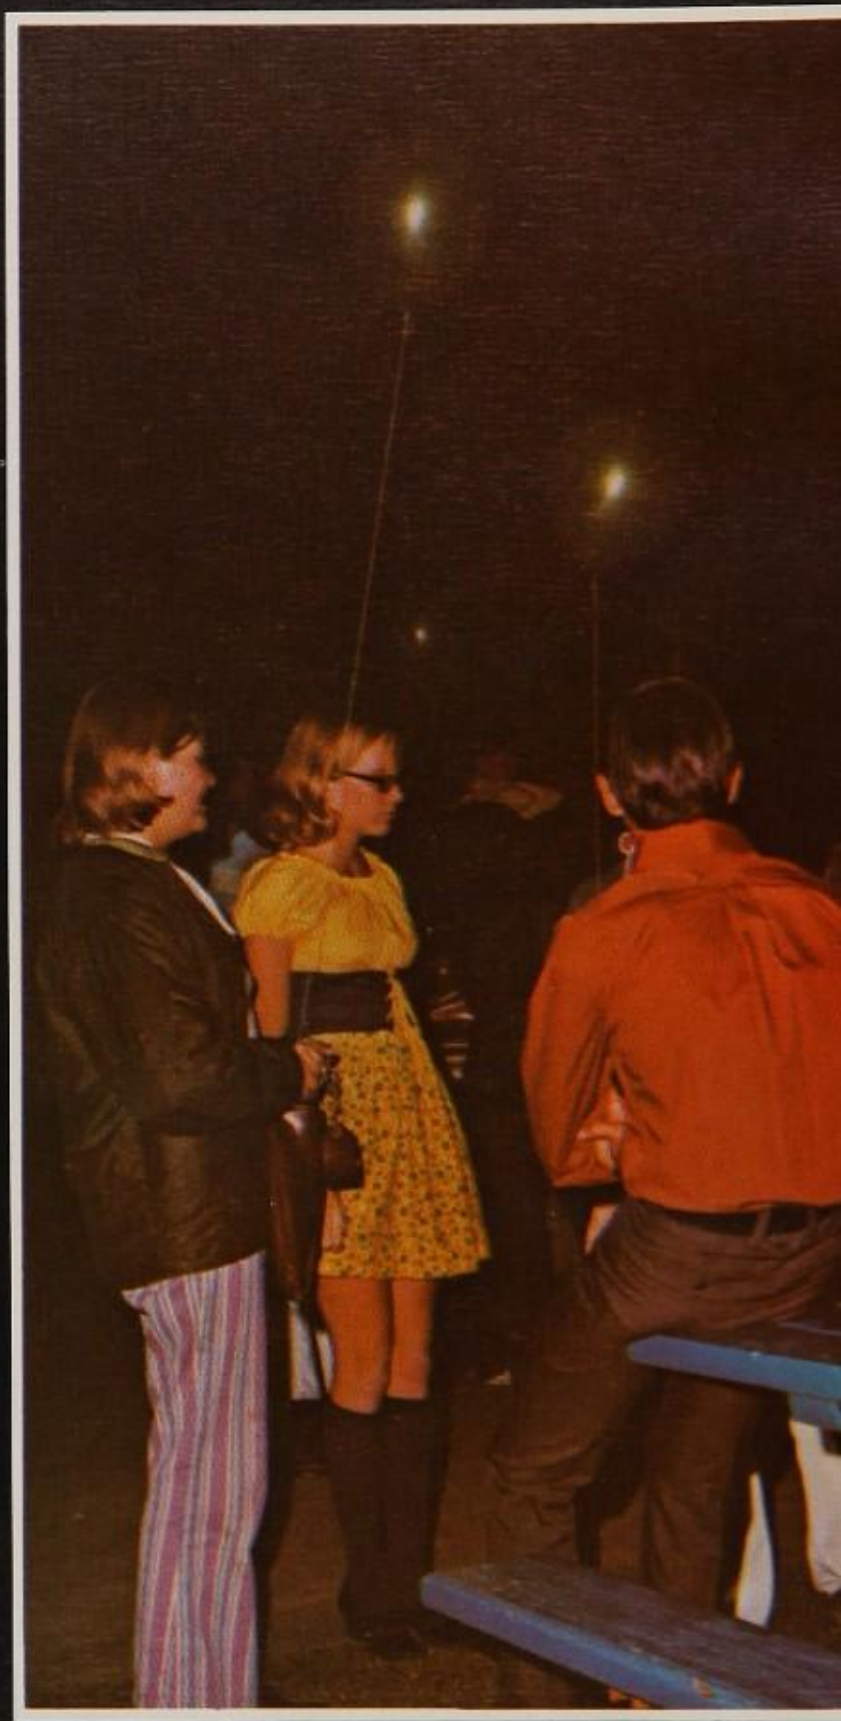
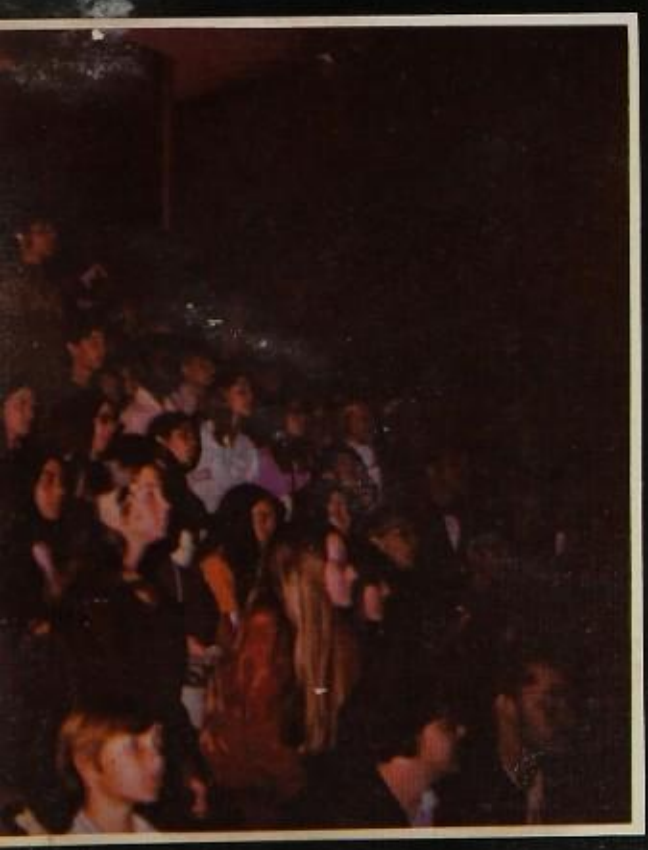
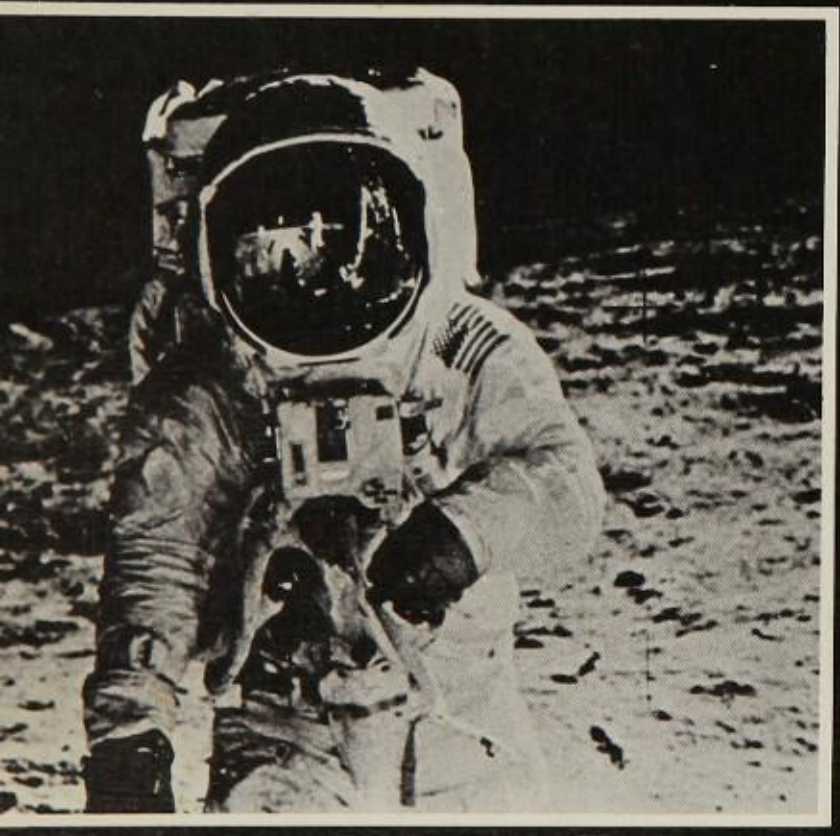
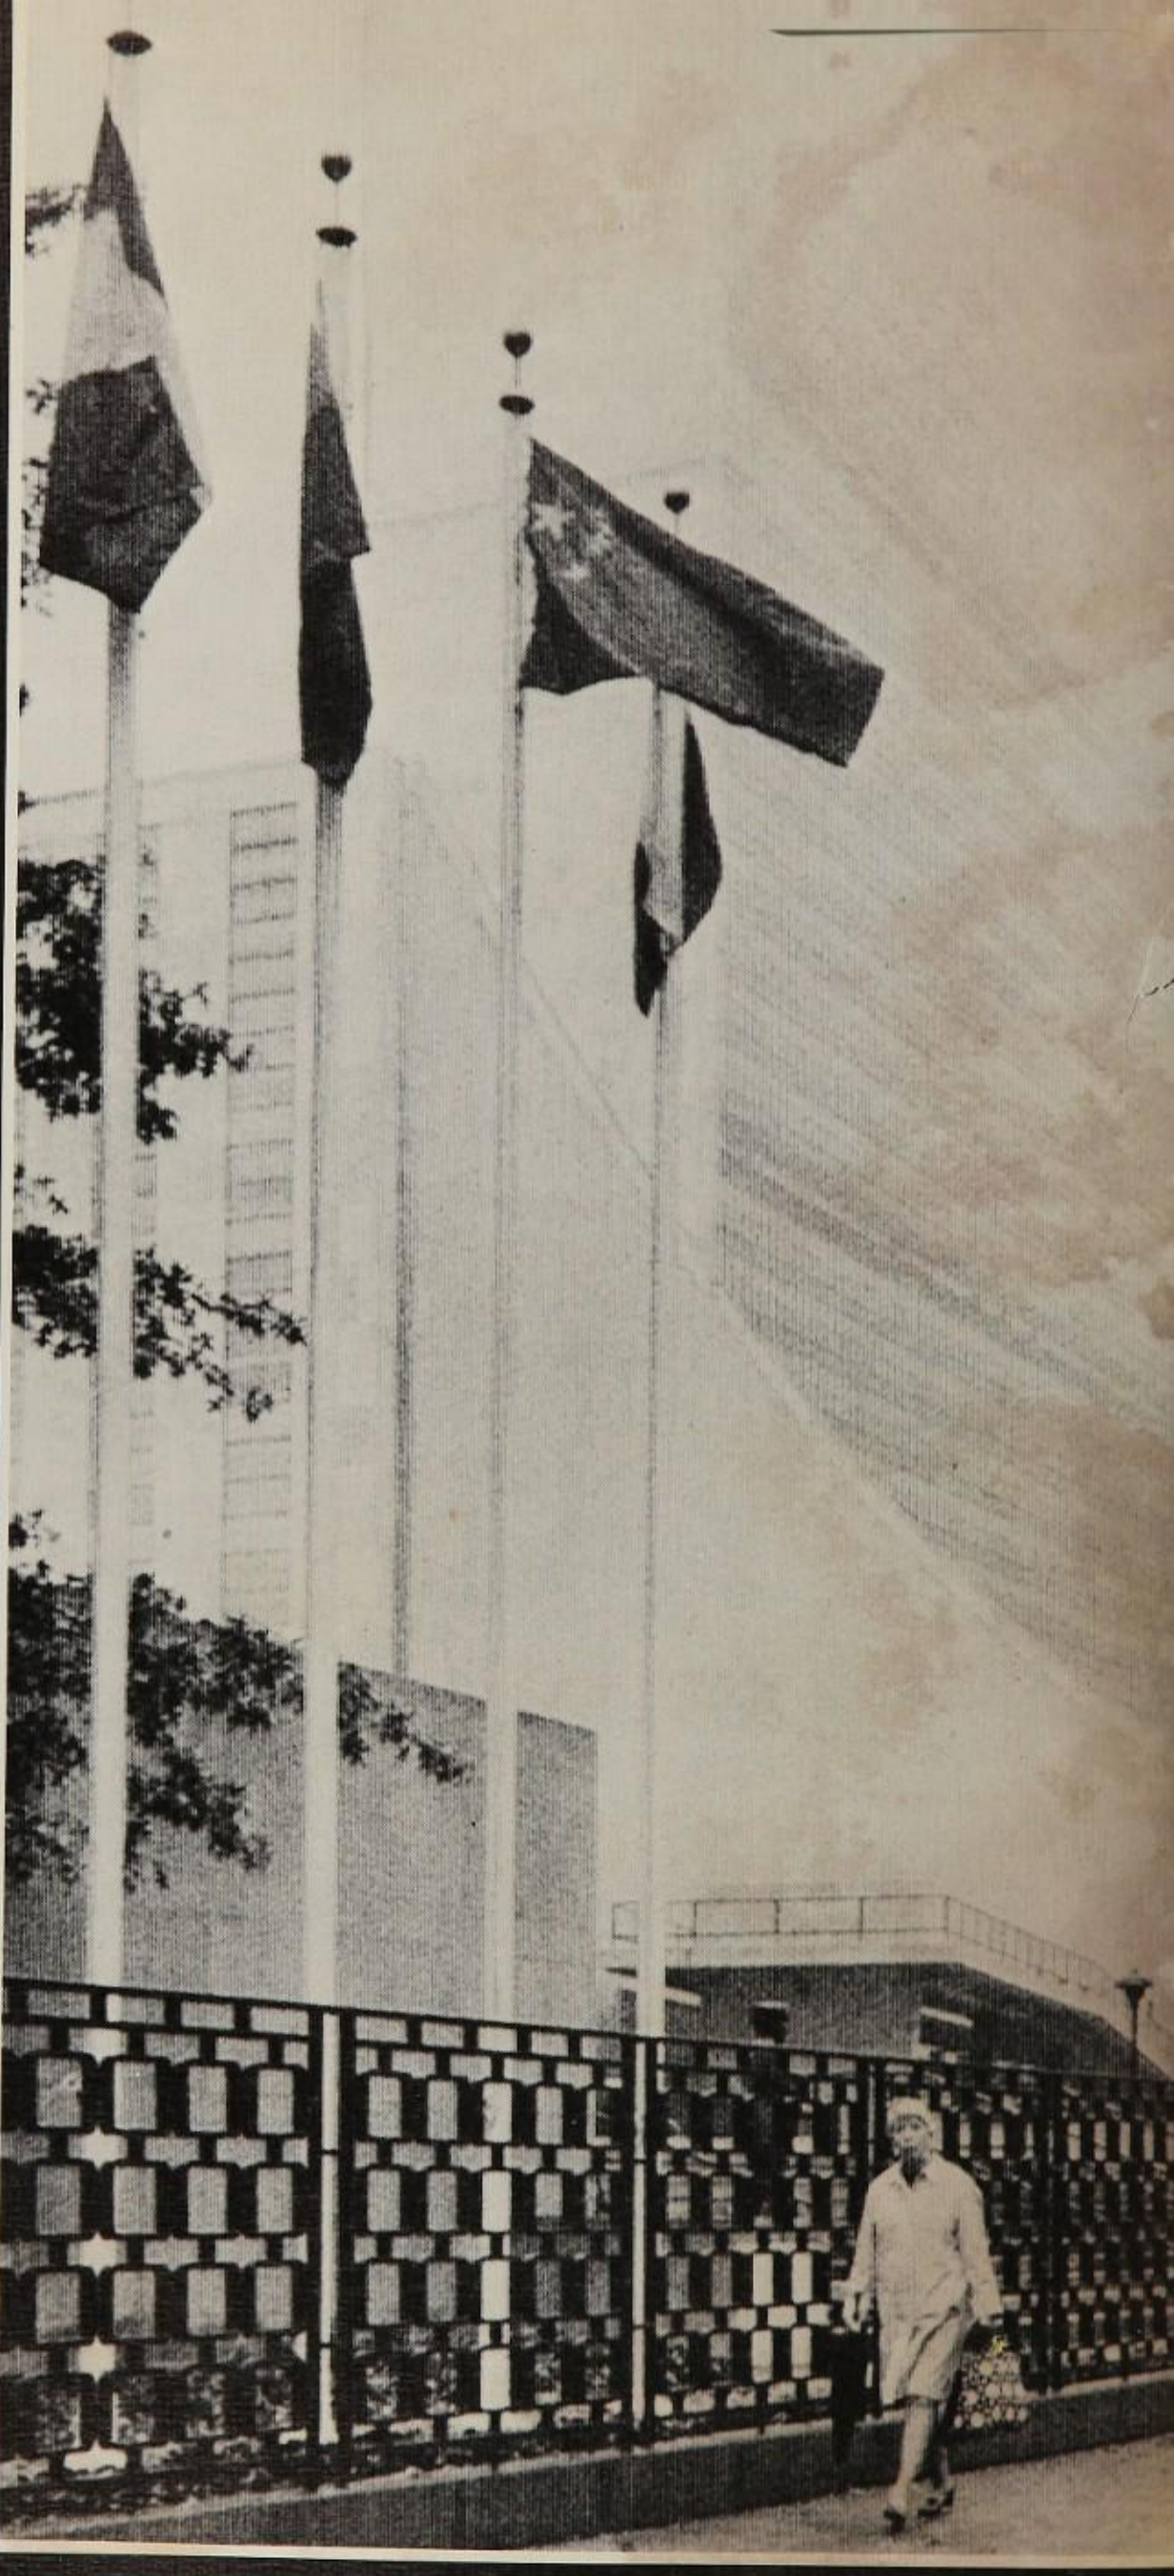
EISENHOWER HIGH S
1321 NO. LILAC

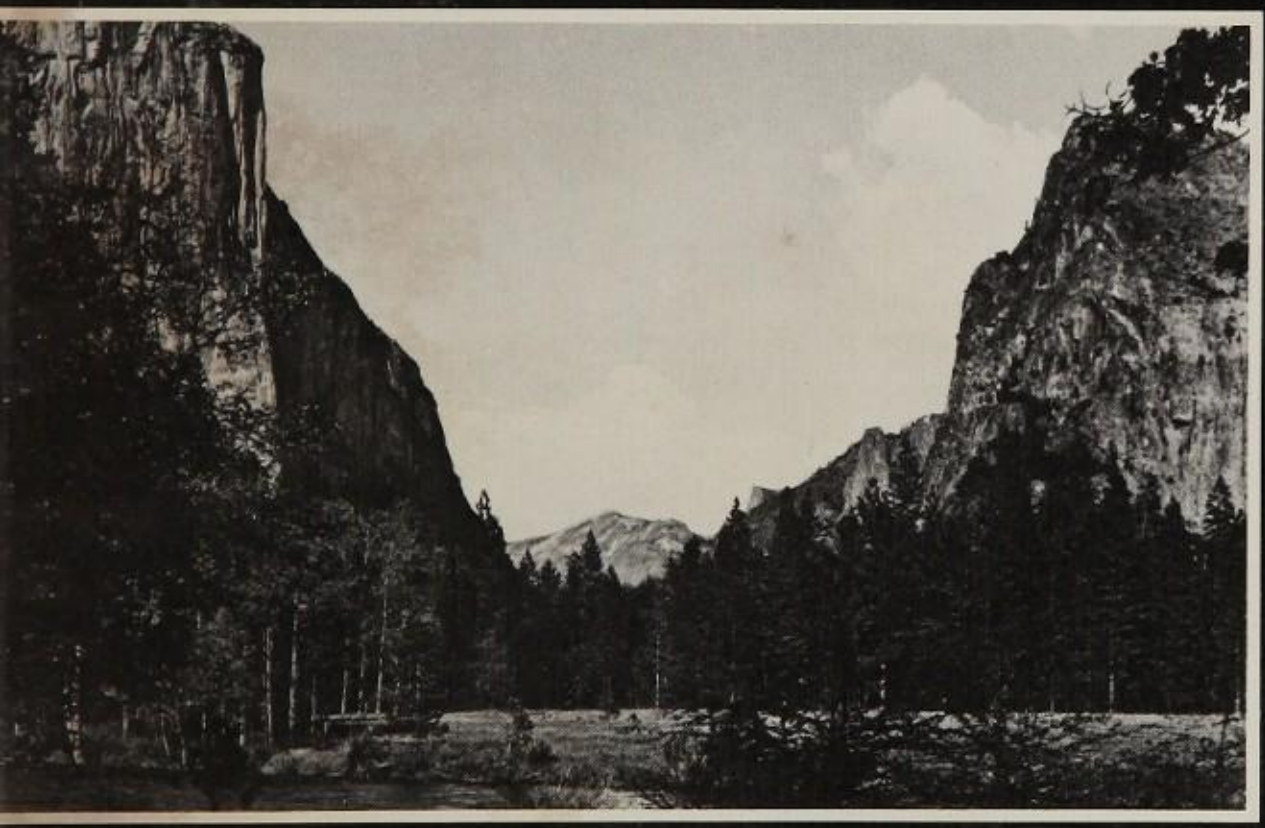




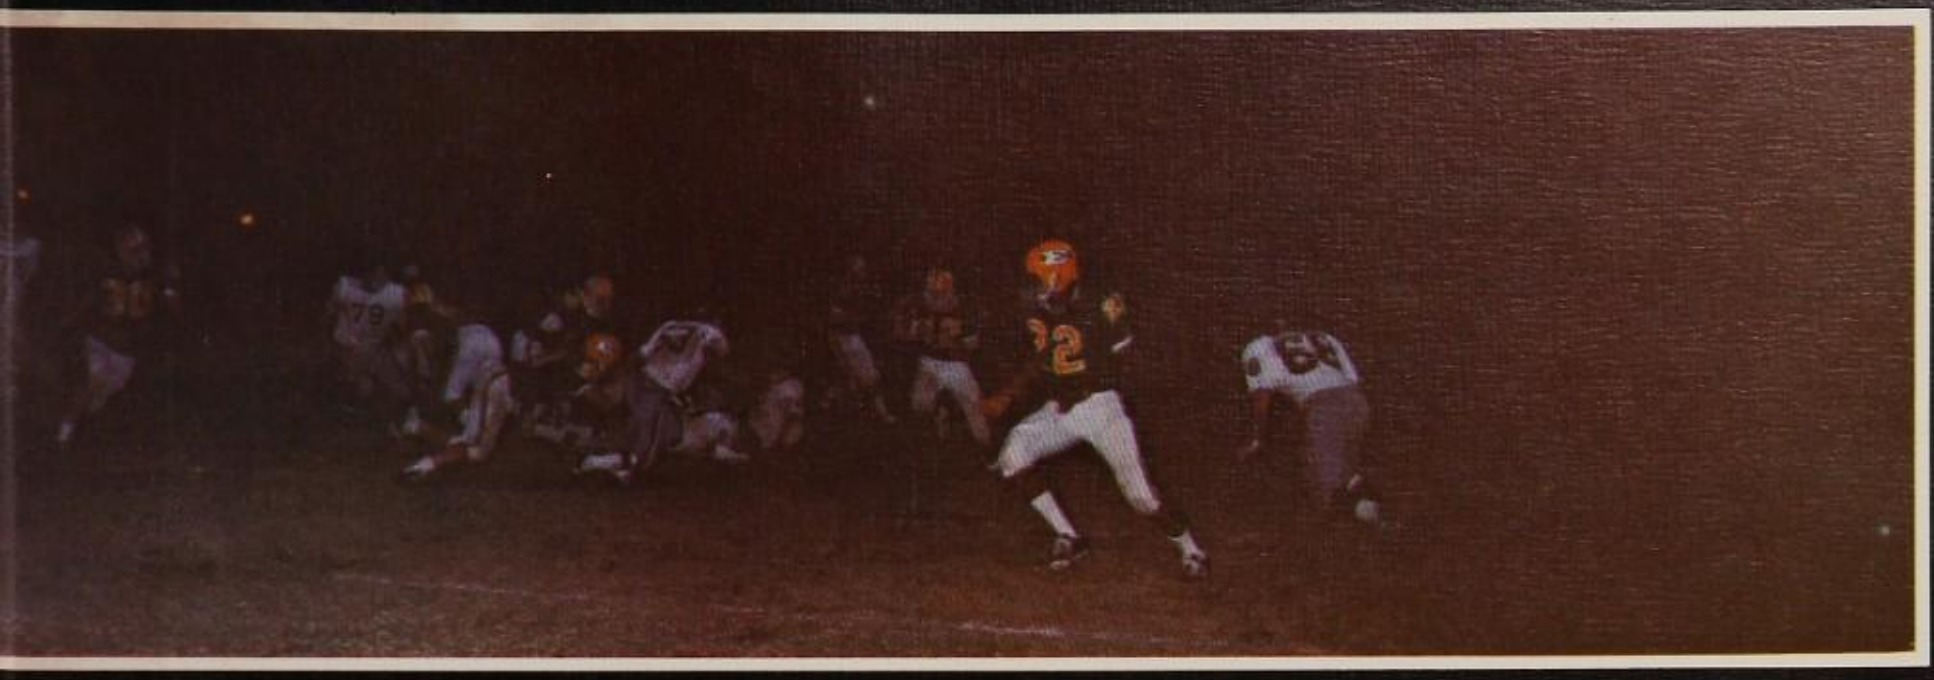
The peace of the world was weakened by misunderstandings between us, millions of lives were in the balance almost every day, but life went on. Man was in space — again, Red China was put into the U.N. The wars in Southeast Asia and the Middle East still dragged on. India and Pakistan confronted each other. And shifts of alliances were frequent throughout the world. Many people were hungry — in turmoil — or both. There were too many of us to be supported by this planet. Everyone had his own plans, but cooperation was the hope and the only workable answer to insure future generations.



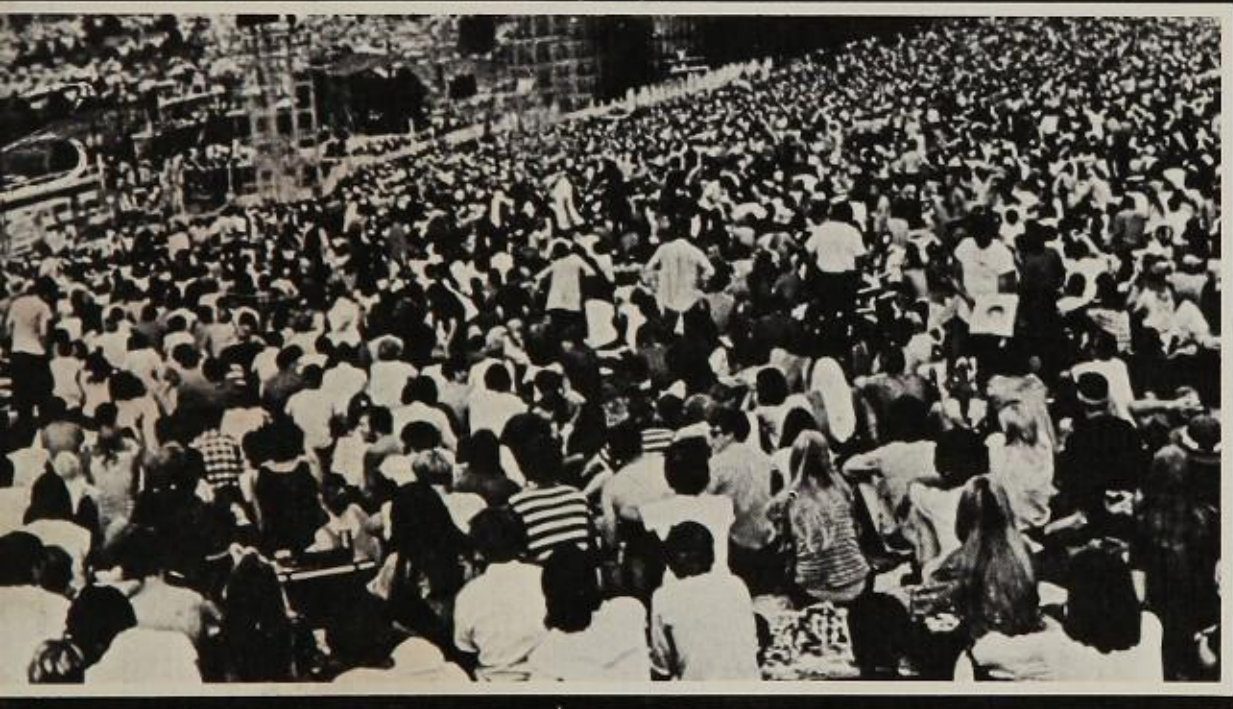


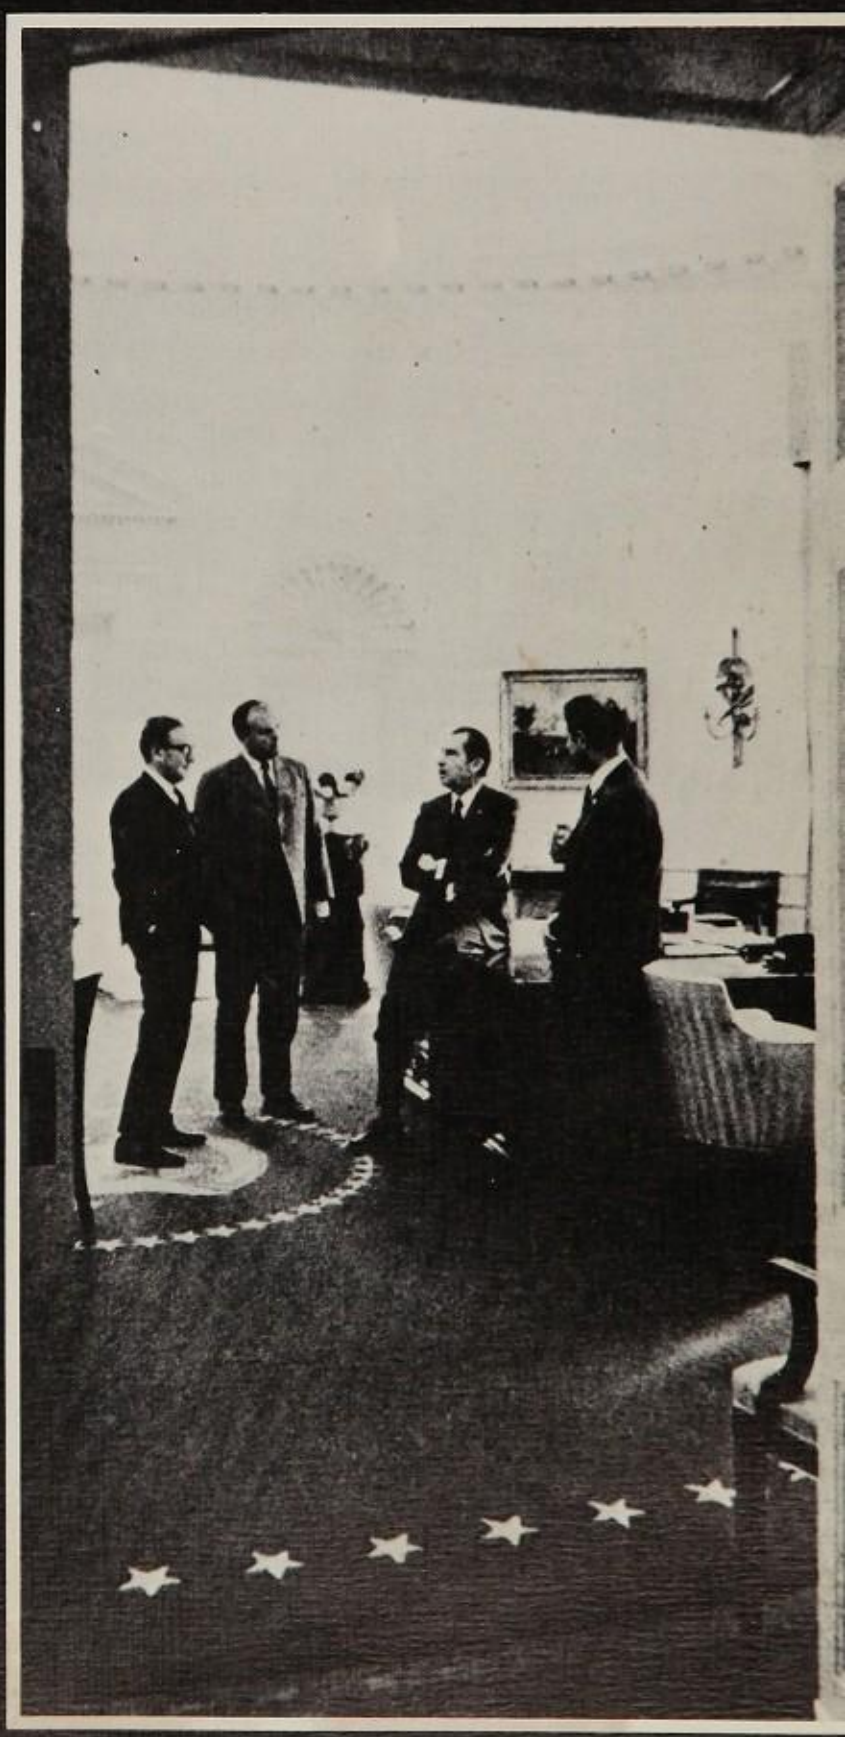


1971-72. The school year you and 2600 other students spent at IKE. A twelve year old school of "temporary" facilities. But people and activities make the year — not the buildings. An open lunch period and its freedom were enjoyed. People were everywhere. We overflowed out of stuffy rooms, to noisy halls, from the parking lots and on into the street. We came morning after morning. Although sometimes we complained, most of us kept coming back for more. Seniors, juniors, sophomores and faculty members worked together to make the Eisenhower Campus what it was or wasn't.

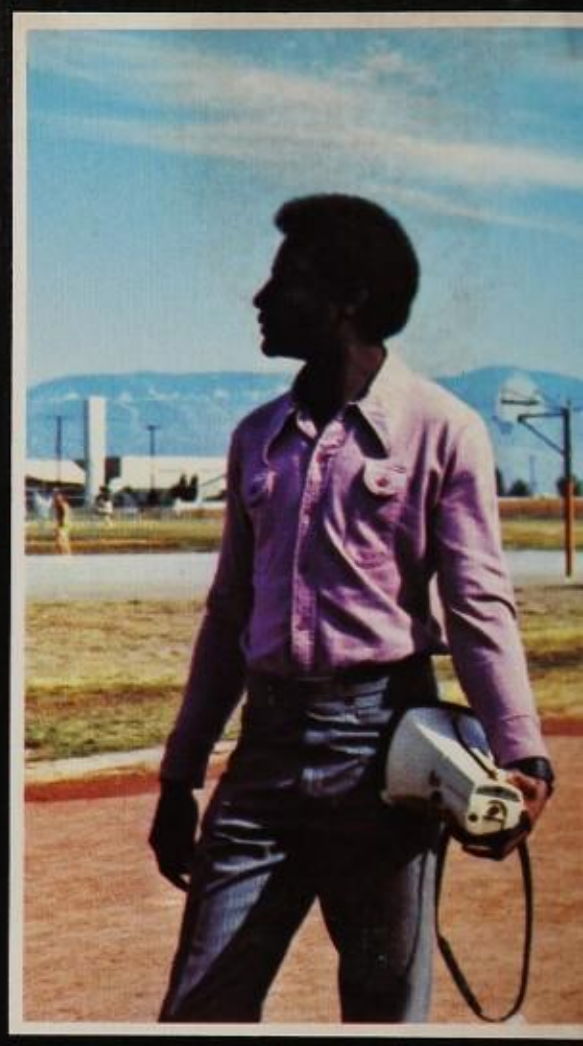


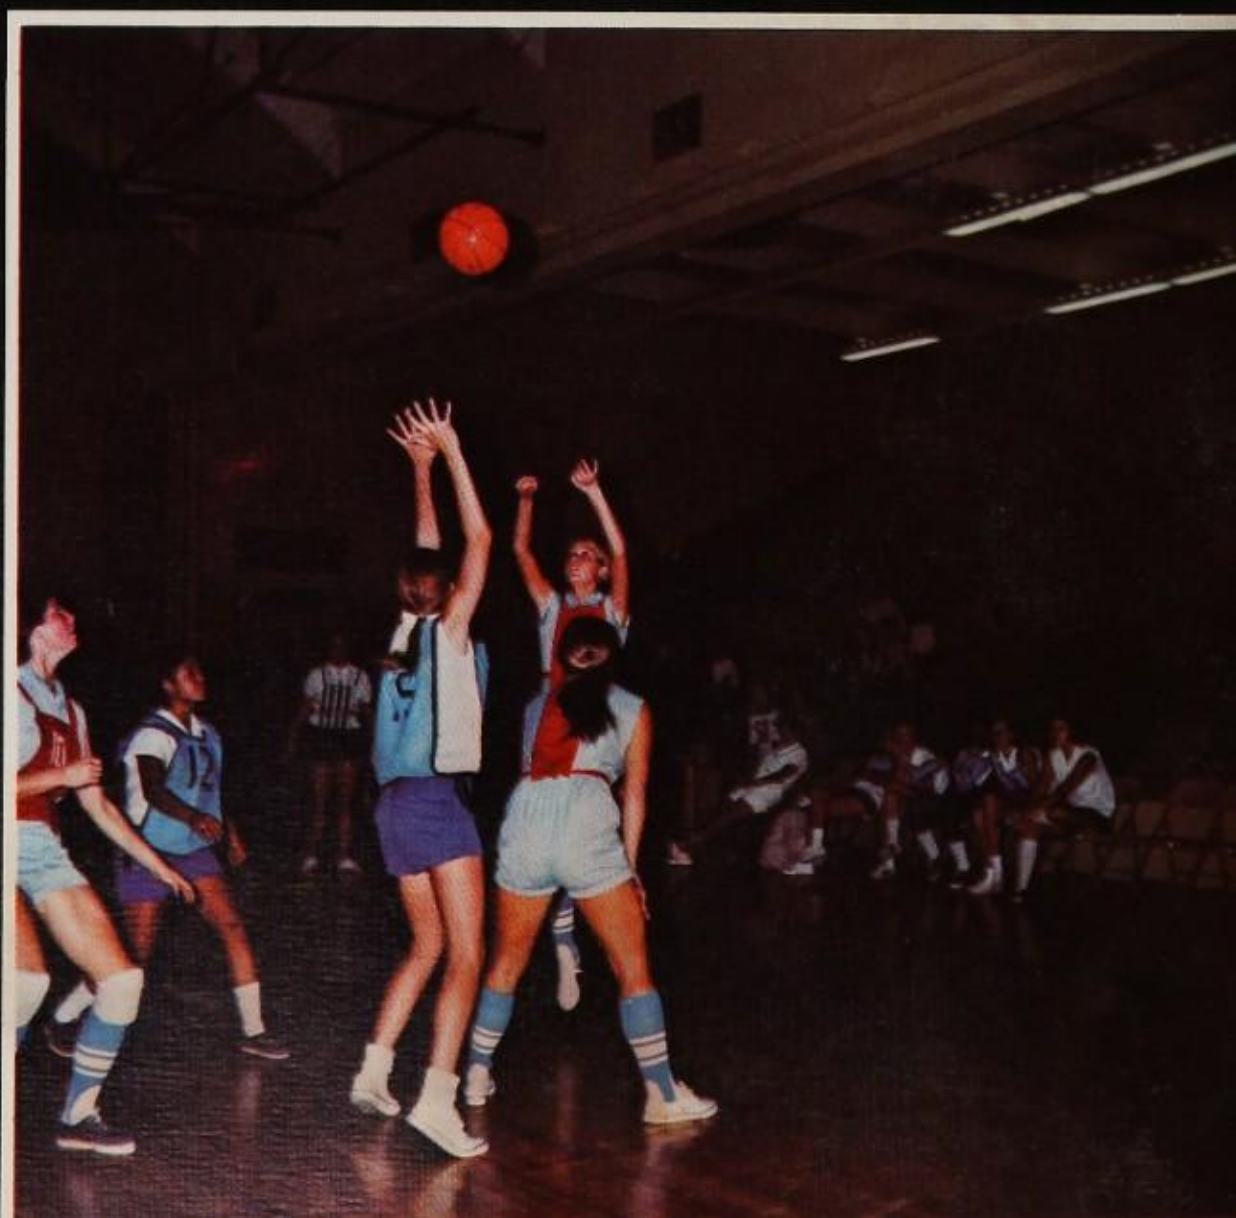
Washington, D. C. The Capitol of the greatest country in the history of the World. But still America struggled to retain our pride in the world and among ourselves. Our President worked hard to "make this an age of negotiation, not confrontation." It seemed our officials went almost everywhere trying to reason problems out at the conference table. A great rise of concern for ecology, the consumer, and the economy swept the nation. Prices and wages were frozen. Many became involved and Ralph Nader was almost a household word. We were a country united — yet divided. Americans came together to study, to discuss, to celebrate, and to question. Many asked themselves — "What will happen to US?"

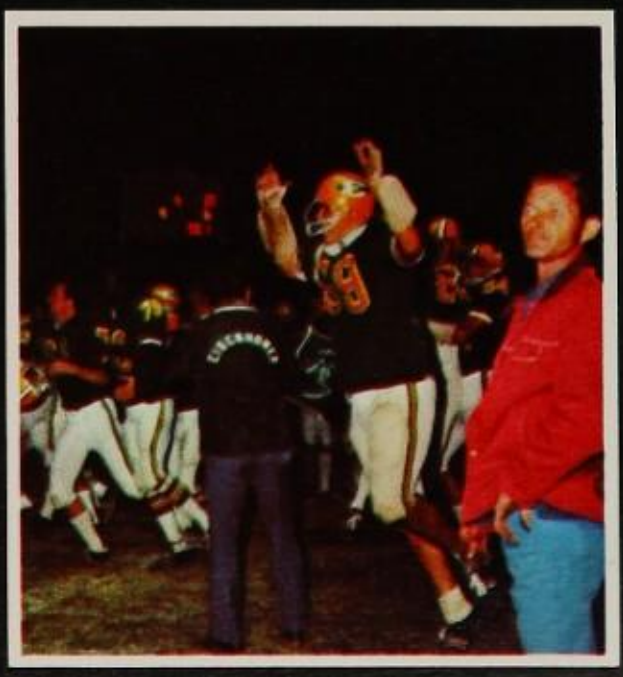




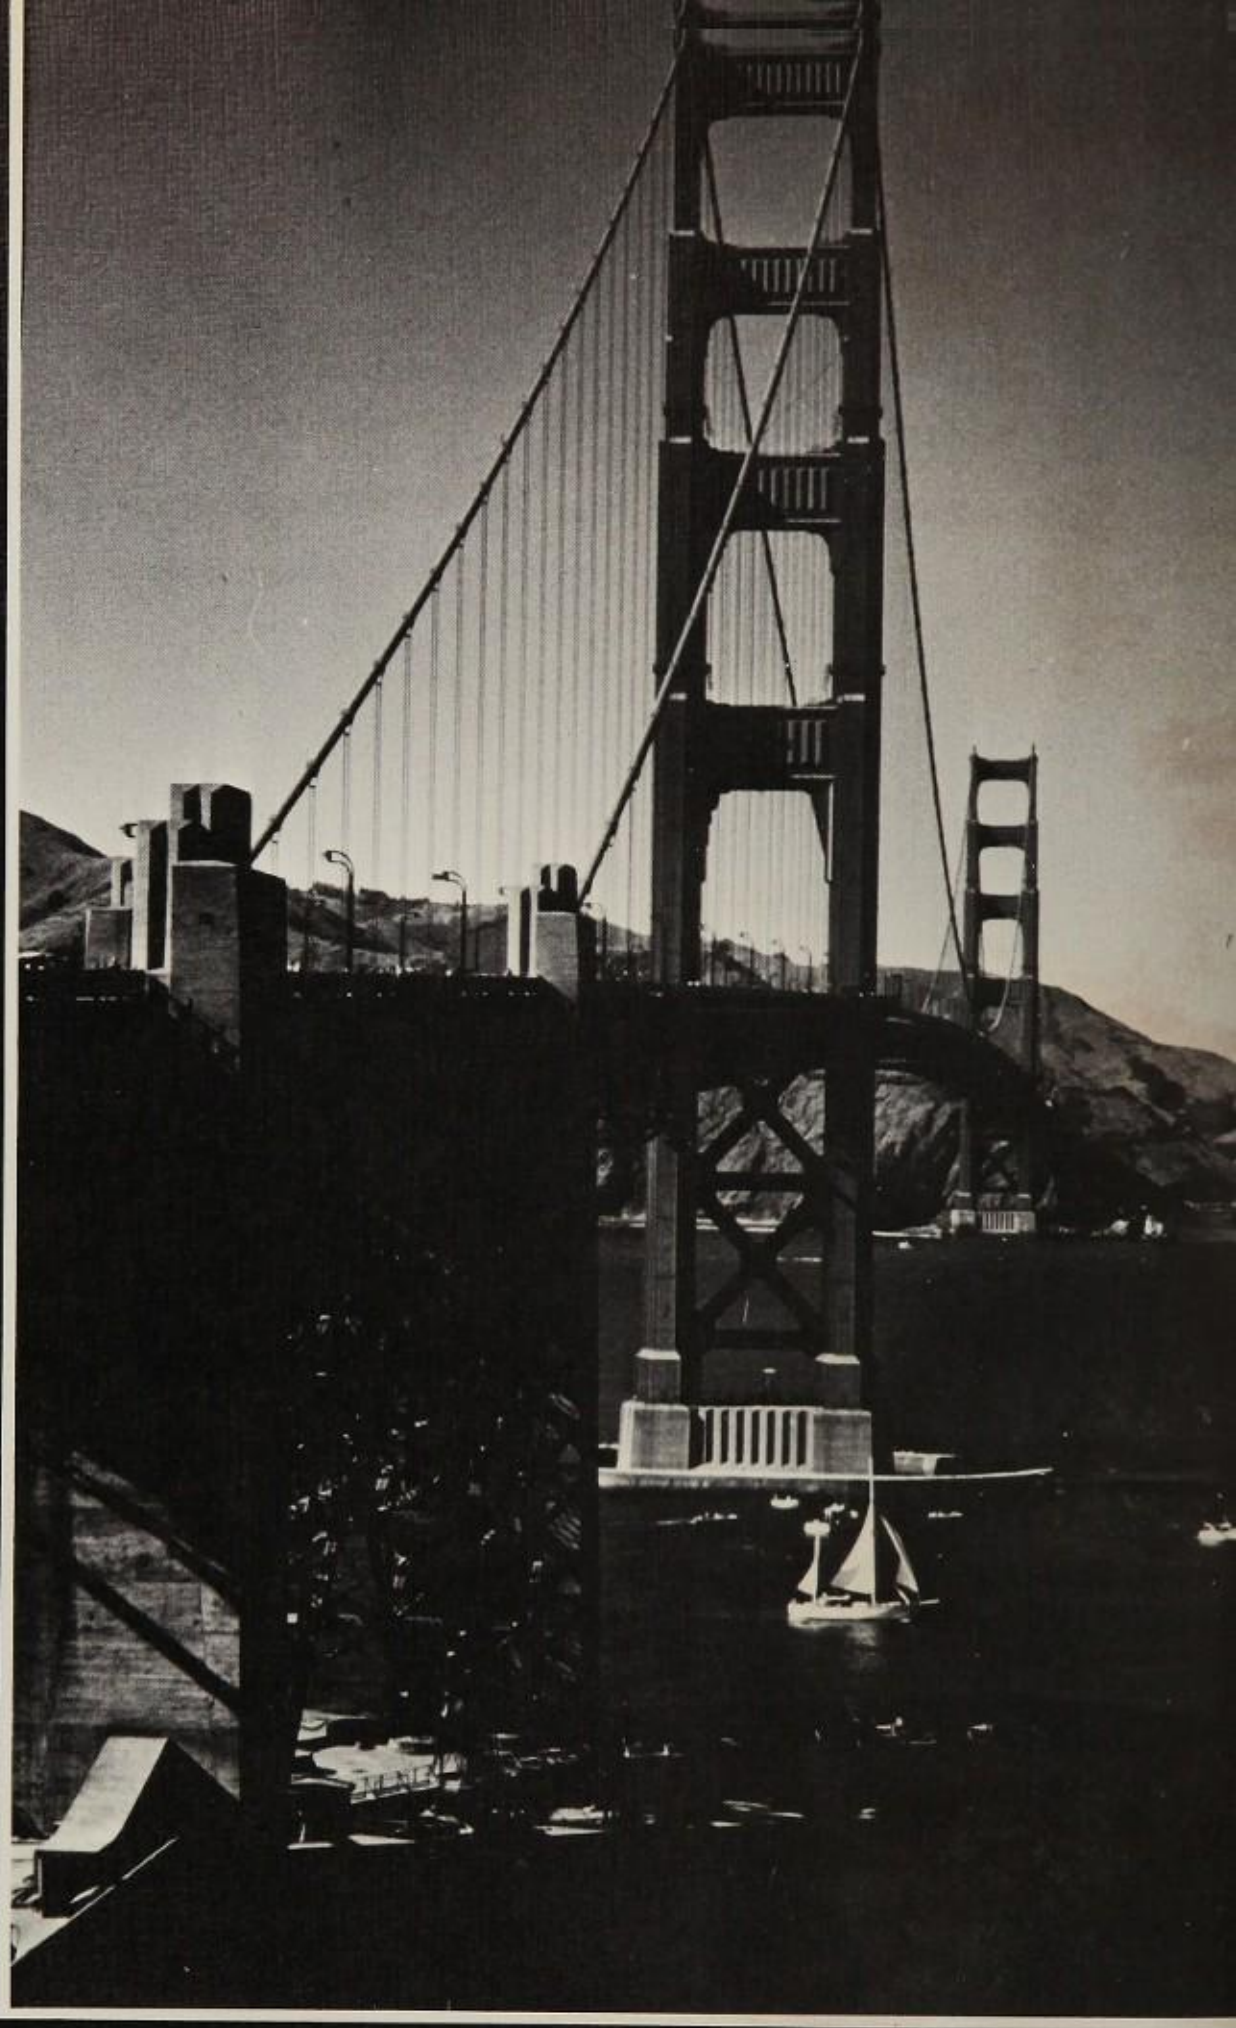
A new coach — Mr. Daluiso — and a co-operating staff. A football team that really worked together. On October 12, 1971 Eagle supporters were thrilled and Ramona fans were shocked as IKE defeated the Rams 21 to 7 for the school's first victory in over a year. Then finally winning a homecoming after five years of disappointment. The Eisenhower football program was established as a potential power. Our GAA Girls with all their C.B.L. Victories, and an even BETTER BAND under new leadership — Mr. Hester — through guidance, pride, and hard work truly gave the student body something to believe in.

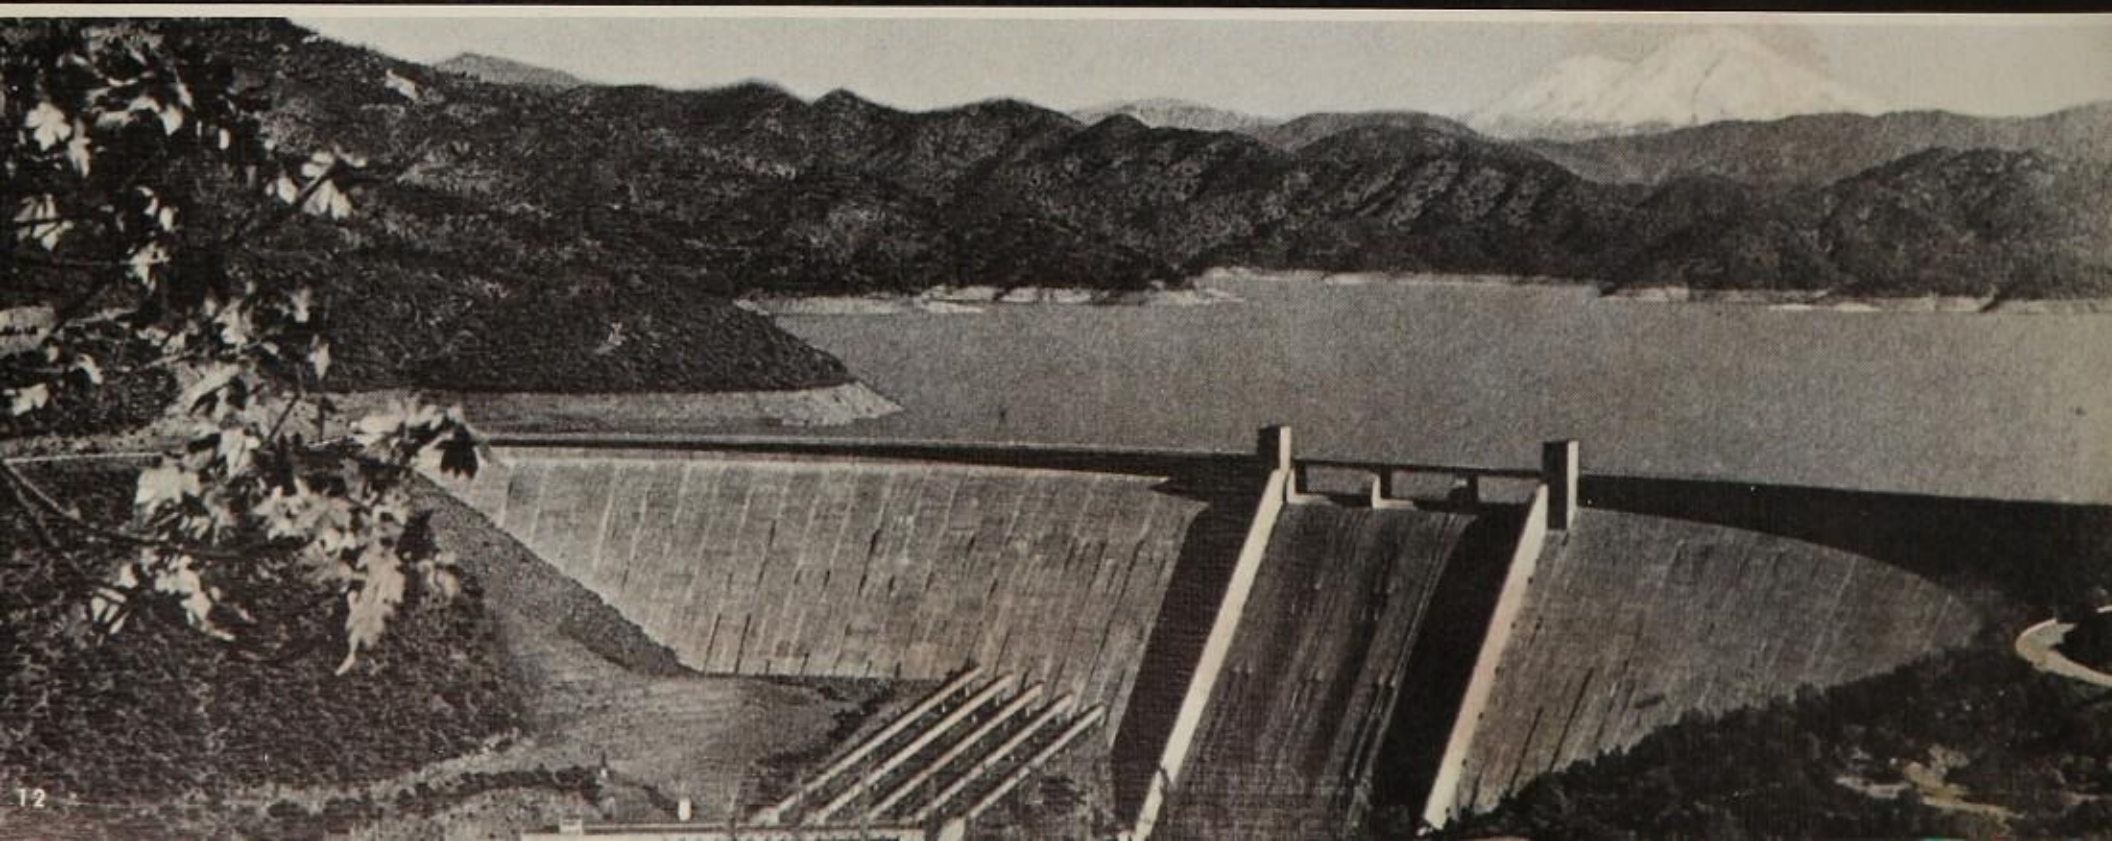






California, with its "gateway to the west," became a stronger center of power as the prominence of the Western Whitehouse became more obvious. Our cities were growing and one of them, San Diego, was chosen as a national political convention site. Water, the state's most valuable resource, finally started to trickle through the costly Feather River Project. The San Bernardino region was cut into new districts and the county increased in importance. Our school systems taught and provided worthwhile educational experiences. But cutbacks in public education were made throughout the state. And our district felt the squeeze of lack of funds. The rock opera Jesus Christ Superstar toured the country and while visiting the Swing Auditorium the show touched and enlightened thousands.





EISENHOWER
HIGH

"Beneath a frayed and tattered sky aged with eternities of winds, and nights, and rains, Wanders man in his blindness.
Carrying amulets of hope clenched tightly in hand, searching for answers, and self pacification. Then out of the darkness, trembling hands find each other, fusing together like mother and child, and there is an awakening of Life Opening the blinded eyes. That now see the reflection of sunrise in our circle of oneness. Mutent Lips are of song, Deafened ears become aware of the music that surrounds them . . .

Together in our unity we stand facing tomorrow,
and faith,
and a dream.
This never dying ring of hands
strives on destiny, and shuns the blakness
Like morning dew on a ravens wing."

September Registration and People brought about the beginning of a new school year and the end of an old summer. Scorching temperatures, a new registration system, and a touch of open campus welcomed students to the grounds of Eisenhower High School. Students were given the responsibility to create their own schedules which proved to be confusing to some, but worthwhile to most. Open campus was one other privilege given to students to prove their maturity. Temperature reaching as high as 117° brought the school day to a 12:30 P.M. end during the beginning of school. On Friday, Dr. Feel Good entertained EHS students at a welcoming dance.

"Happiness is . . ." Week of October 18-22 which was the week of Eisenhower's Football Homecoming. A voluntary homecoming assembly began the week's strenuous activities at Ike. Fourteen girls stood radiantly hoping to become the proud queen of our school. Many organizations and the three classes participated and contributed many hours of work with napkins and chicken wire on their floats. Azurettes won the acclaimed first prize and will be responsible for next year's queen float. Sen-Tetts took second place entering the queen's float in the contest. On October 20, Linda Jaracz, Cindy Wilson, Rhonda Copeland, Michelle Parker, and Sue Palmer were named finalists for queen. That evening, band and drill team marched into an array of formations and the announcement of queen was made final. Pep Club held dance.

Sue Palmer Finds What Happiness Is

as she is crowned Eisenhower's Homecoming queen of 1971. Nerves were tense as the girls paraded through a marching band and drill team formation. Minutes were many until the final candidate approached the endline meaning the time for the results was near. Hearts throbbed, until our mascot, Lisa Bocanegra, chose Michelle Parker, first princess. The audience applauded. Again, the crowd grew quiet. The mascot finally announced Sue Palmer our Queen.

Friends Come to Ike From Dogpatch USA

for Ike's annual celebrated Sadie Hawkins dance. The dance sponsored by Hi Tri was celebrated No vember 13 from 8 — midnight. "Levity" the group furnishing the music, entertained and supplied sounds at this festive event. Mr. Bert Cassan acted as Marryin' Sam. His main job being to marry couples and make the whole matter legal. Refreshments were sold at country store for Eisenhower hillbillies.

Eisenhower Showed Off Its Talent

Thursday night, January 27. Acts revolving around dancing, clarinet playing and singing were revealed to the vast audience witnessing the show. This was the first annual evening talent show enabling parents to view the show along with students. A few of the talented entertainers were vocalists singing young sounds, an instrumental quartet of clarinets, impressive dance numbers.

'Monte Carlo Night' Chosen Theme of Mardi

Gras held March 10 from 9 to 12 o'clock in the Eisenhower cafeteria. The event, sponsored by the foreign language clubs, invited all students, particularly those dressed in costumes to attend. In fact, if you did wear a costume 25¢ would be refunded to you. A dance contest to the ever-loved "Glass Cage," the sale of burritos, a pinata and games made the night a more delightful one for all that attended.

Debbie Fogg Chosen for "Rebound"

Homecoming dance the night of February fourth. A capacity crowd watched as Julie Shough announced Kim Bird Sophomore Sweetheart. Following her, Susan Bomgardner was awarded the honor of Junior Darling. Tension and anticipation mounted as Sharon Hunt was chosen First Senior Princess. Finally Debbie Fogg was crowned Miss Basketball Homecoming Queen of 1972. Following the basketball game victory against Chaffey, Debbie and court arrived at 'Rebound' to dance to the beat of the Golden Hearts.

Far Left: Debbie Fogg is announced queen as Debbie Stroud and Lisa Bocanegra award her a bouquet of red roses. Kim Martinez, 1971 Basketball Homecoming queen, traditionally crowns the new queen. Winterful Folk Festival Notes Musical talent of young people throughout the community. Students at Ike, popular folk singers, Ike alumni, all partook in the production of the annual Winterful Folk Festival. A capacity crowd enjoyed that March 8 evening. The show began at 8 o'clock lasting until approximately 10:30. The songs sung were self-written by the entertainer or well-known songs resung in their style.

Second Annual Student Art Exhibit Was held in the south wing of the gym, April 12-14, daily and evenings. Art and ceramic students displayed their talented work in all phases of Ike's art program. Members of the student body crowded the gym observing the show. Eight finalists received awards from the three judges invited to judge and attend the art show. Winning works were entered in competition in the San Bernardino County Sun-Telegram exhibit.

Cinco de Mayo Celebration Included Mexican Dances performed on Friday, April 28th during an after school assembly. Starring in the assembly as folk dancers were Mexican-American students from Valley College in San Bernardino. The EHS Band and Choir also performed ballads and tunes in Spanish during their portion. Guest speakers spoke on the celebration of Cinco de Mayo, the day the Mexicans defeated France in 1862.

Earlier in the year, Sylvia Medina, Hermanos Unidos President, and club members presented a request to the Board of Trustees for a Chicano studies class taught by a Mexican-American teacher. A request was also made for a declared Cinco de Mayo Week. Both requests were approved.

"Say It Loud, I'm Black and I'm Proud!"

said a portion of Black students attending Eisenhower. The reason? February was proclaimed Black Culture Week. When asked what Robin Tolliver, one of the leaders of the week's activities, thought of this week, she explained it as being "a week for recognition to be given out to the Black people."

An assembly staged after school on Friday consisted mainly of people expressing their views by reciting poems, performing dances, singing. Two displays were erected in the library and student store. A Friday night dance ended the week.

Drama Thrills Audience with "Sganarelle" which was presented November 18 and 19 in Eisenhower's Little Theatre. The actors and actresses performed amidst capacity crowds both evenings. "Sganarelle" was basically a comedy about a husband and a wife who are suspicious of one another. The play told of the experiences the two encounter finally realizing that they are both true. The successful Spring production was "You Were Born On A Rotten Day."

Hang on to your hopes, my friend.
That's an easy thing to say.
But if your hopes should pass away Simply pretend that you can build them again.
Look around.
The grass is high,
The fields are ripe,
It's springtime of my life.

Seasons change with the scenery,
Weaving time in a tapestry.
Won't you stop and remember me.

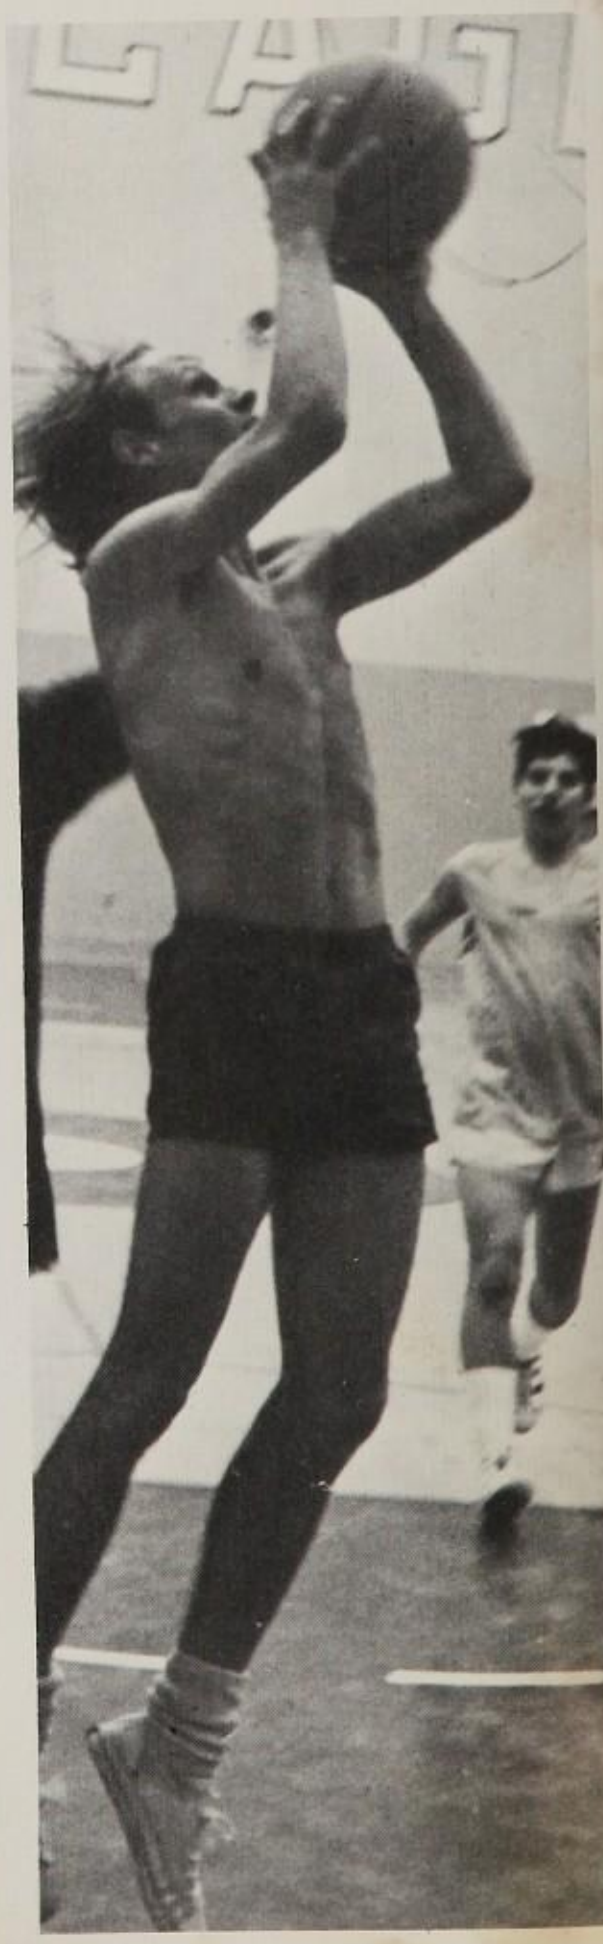
Summer Ended, Eisenhower Opened to a new class of sophomores, familiar juniors and happy seniors. September 8, brought seniors registering with juniors, sophomores on the days proceeding. The 13th of September, School began. Soon after, student council went to the University of Redlands for Student Government Day.

I.D. pictures were taken October 1st. Football Homecoming activities began with an assembly held the 11th and a dance the 22nd sponsored by the Pep Club. The Aquila Staff got into the Ike picture with an assembly promoting Aquila sales.

November 13, students dressed as hillbillies to attend the Sadie Hawkins Dance sponsored by Hi Tri.

The Leo Club's annual film festival entertained students the 16th and 17th evenings in the cafeteria. "Sganarelle" was produced by Drama and presented the 18, 19, 20 in Ike's Little Theater. Concluding November, a Fall Band Concert was performed at Frisbie Park at 4:00 P.M. Excitement filled the air as students awaited Thanksgiving vacation.



Football players received awards at a Banquet given for them by the Booster Club, December 1 at 7:00 P.M. A choral assembly and a Christmas dance brightened the Christmas cheer as vacation anxiously approached the end of '71.

January, the beginning of a new year, a new presidential election, a new graduation class unified students on the 3rd after vacation.

Miss Emma Gilmetti presented a ballet program for all her French classes. On January 20th, Basketball Homecoming contestants participated in an assembly sixth period. A talent show revealed an unlimited amount of talent in students at Ike. Sentettes also sponsored a Roaring Twenties Dance where flappers danced charleston.

February 4, was the magic night in which Debbie Fogg was crowned Basketball Homecoming Queen. The dance later that night was entitled "Rebound." The EHS Concert Band performed for Rialto Junior High. On February 24, students and community were entertained by the faculty, students, and donkies. AFS club conducted city-wide drives for the two Rialto AFS finalists.

Sobobans began March by inviting members of the faculty to Griswold's for the Faculty Feed. Wednesday, March 8, Student Council sponsored the Winterful Folk Festival. Cheerleaders, poms, flags, mascot were chosen. Sophomores held Rialto's first swap meet. The Harlem Clowns displayed their skills.

Eisenhower students witnessed the judging of Miss Rialto, April 1st. Drill team tryouts were held the week of the 3-12. April 13th Sentettes challenged Azurettes to a basketball game. The Prom was held in the Mission Inn on April 22nd.

Cinco de Mayo Week began the activities for the month of May. Drama presented their Spring production. May 6th, a fashion show was sponsored by Sentettes. The last dance of the year was the Alana Aloha.

Rehearsals, distribution of caps and gowns, distribution of the Aquila and Baccalaureate were just a few of the activities seniors had to cope with in June. Ending the school year was graduation, tears, vacation and Californian beaches.

Council Dead?

Student council was not dead at all. Council had various projects this year to improve Ike. One of the main issues pursued was keeping open campus. Open campus was achieved the year before, but it was up to student council to keep the campus open. Campus beautification was another project that council worked on. They planted honeysuckle bushes along the front of the school. A student bill of rights was also compiled by the council. Several committees gathered various information pertaining to a stadium for Ike. Student council and student body united in one cause.

B. officers for 1971-72 are: Pat Norris, Lee Carmean, president, Patty Conners, Susan Maxson, Sue Streater, treasurer, Nannette Sanzone, John Mace, Mark Shepherd, Jean Baugh, secretary, Jay Simonson, vice-president, Clyde Derrick, Sandy Day, Mary Dowling, Colleen Elgan, Laurie Greene, Historian, Glen Whitehurst, Sue Roberts, Juli Shough, Debra Lambert, Irma Poole, Speaker of the House. Not shown are: Yolanda Culbreath, Sheila Blanco, Geoff Sharp, Scott McKinney, Aleda Quiroz, John Barker, Paulo Marcal, Melba Morales, Robin Tolliver and Sylvia Medina. Below: Glen Whitehurst, Mary Dowling, Scott McKinney, Jean Baugh, and Lee Carmean are discussing a current problem of clubs and organizations that are on probation because of lack of activity forms. Powder Puff football game, that was the House of Representatives biggest undertaking this year. Due to other events and complications this year, the powder puff football game had to be canceled. Perhaps it will be undertaken next year. Discussions concerning a stadium were also held and the upkeep of the parking lot was subject matter of the House's meetings. Speaker of the House, Irma Poole, presided over meetings.

Presidents

United in Interclub Council to keep uniformity throughout the clubs on the Ike campus. One of the many projects I.C.C. did was the March of Dimes collection. Jay Simonson, president of I.C.C. began the year by informing the presidents of the stricter rules concerning activity forms.

High Spirit

Not really high, but full of pep for Ike, was Lisa Bocanegra. During the Spring of last year, she and twelve other people, tried out for mascot. During tryouts each person was required to make up a skit and perform in front of judges and an audience. Lisa survived this ordeal and was chosen as the mascot for 71-72. A mascot must be full of pep and imagination. Lisa was well qualified and did a good job for Ike.

Spirit for the Eagles was encouraged by Ike's Varsity Cheerleaders. During the summer, the cheerleaders attended the National Cheerleading Association camp. The cheerleaders received superior ratings for their cheers. The girls came back with new enthusiasm and exciting yells and chants. The cheerleaders attended all of Ike's sports activities and pep assemblies throughout the year. The girls added new pep and spirit, which was very contagious.

Bees Spirit

shown at all Junior Varsity and Bee sports events was genuine. The cheerleaders attended the National Cheerleading Association summer camp and received superior ratings during their stay. The experience they gained at camp was put to good use as they began the year with enthusiasm. The girls participated in all pep assemblies by leading cheers for the J.V. and Bee teams. They represented Ike at all the athletic meets. The cheerleaders worked hard to perfect their yells and tried to convey the spirit and excitement of supporting the Eagles through a united school effort.

Songleaders Led Eagles

in a song of praise and support during pep assemblies and sports activities. The Pom Pons also performed routines to music during pep assemblies. The girls practiced several times a week to perfect their moves so they would all be in unison. The songleaders tried to show this unity and encouraged spirit for Eisenhower's teams.

routines were just one example of the thrilling exhibitions put on by the Ike Flag Twirlers. After attending summer camp the girls returned to school with many new ideas and twirls to prod school spirit and gain support for EHS.

Drill, Drill,

Drill is what Eisenhower's marching drill team did at least twice a week after school. The drill team worked three weeks before school began so they could march with the band at the California 500. The drill team participated in many parades this year including the Santa Claus parade, the Riverside 500 parade, the Tournament of Bands and the Band Pageant. Led by Kathy Boyd, they also participated in pep assemblies and games by putting on routines to music.

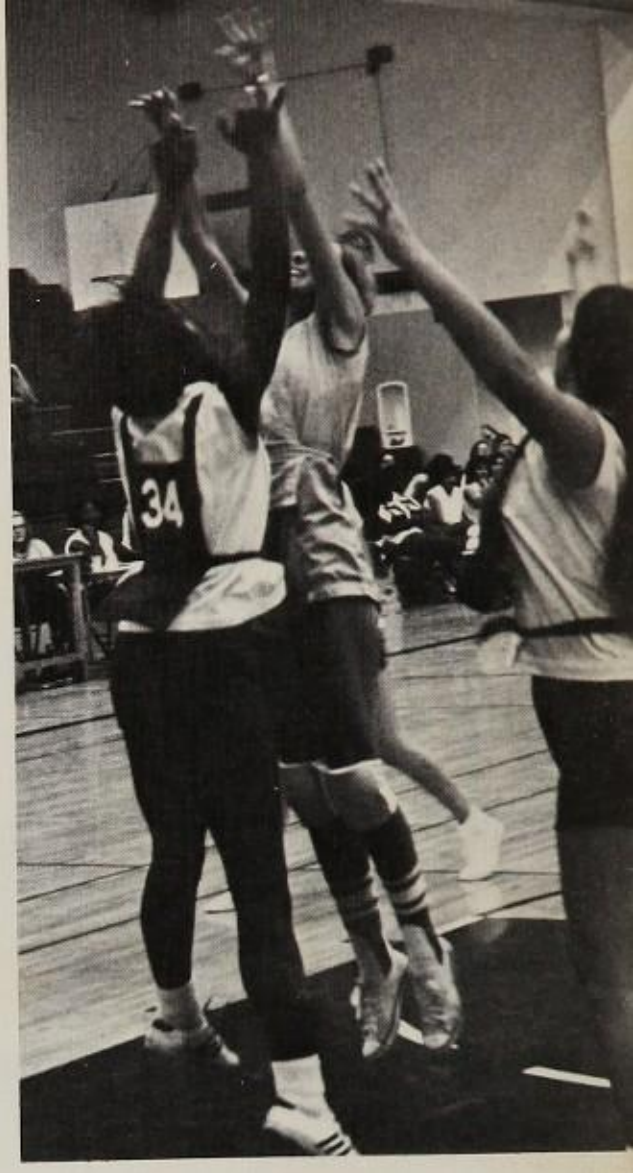
began the year with basketball and swimming. The Girls Athletic Association started off in the fall with team spirit and enthusiasm. Mrs. Catherine Cox, the basketball coach, stressed the need for complete team participation. The G.A.A. basketball team took second place in their tournament against seven other high schools. They were also invited to the Redlands Invitational. Sue Palmer and Robbie Freeman were captains for basketball.

Right: It looks like Shelley Kezer has the edge over her opponent. Below: A team is as follows: Sandra Lindsey, Pam Roberts, Sue Palmer, captain, Shelley Kezer, Karen Smith, Denise Allison and Vicki Shaff. Bottom: B team is as follows: Jane Williamson, Toni Gutierrez, Debra Lambert, Irma Poole, Faith Squires, Mi Mi Petersen, Linda Miner and Robbie Freeman, team captain for 1971-1972. Both the A and B teams for G.A.A. basketball united in a group effort to gain recognition as tournament place holders for Ike.



The Eisenhower G.A.A. swimming team participated in two meets this year. The first held with Redlands ended in defeat with a score of 83-38. The second meet held against Chaffey was more evenly matched. Up to the very end, the Eisenhower swimming team gave Chaffey a run for their victory of 64-57. Miss Spears, the swimming team coach, felt that the team did exceptionally well and with so many returning sophomores, the team has a good future. Miss Spears also noticed that every member, of the team, took first place at least once, at either meet. After computation of all their points, Stephanie Wood was chosen most valuable swimmer. The swimming team united in single and team effort.

Winter and Spring sports for G.A.A. were field hockey, tennis, volleyball and softball. All the teams did their best to represent Ike in girls sports. Team effort was the most important factor. At the awards banquet held in March, the Most Valuable Players were named. Sue Palmer, Robbie Freeman and Gail Wexler were chosen from the basketball, field hockey and tennis teams. In the Citrus Belt League, the Eisenhower teams placed third in swimming, second in basketball, third in tennis and second in field hockey. After two successful seasons the girls were finally able to purchase new uniforms in March.

Lake Havasu and London

Bridge were visited by the Madrigal singers. They started the year off by singing at the Ontario 500 race. Next they participated in the opening of London Bridge on Lake Havasu. When Christmas time came, the Madrigal singers were eager to perform in front of different clubs and organizations, including a performance at Disneyland. The Madrigal singers held a Spring concert. All the choirs made a Christmas recording to raise money for robes and transportation.

A Beginning

was what the sixteen talented girls in the beginning girls choir achieved this year. These girls helped to bring the Christmas spirit to Eisenhower by participating in the chorale departments Christmas show. They also made a record along with the other chorale groups.

A' Capella Is

the advanced girls and boys choirs mixed. These girls and boys were loaded with talent and showed it this year in their various concerts including their Christmas concert where all the choirs joined together for the finale of "Let there be Peace on Earth." The A' Capella choir also participated in the opening of London Bridge on Lake Havasu, singing with Citrus College chorale groups. The A' Capella choir helped to raise money for this trip and others by recording a few of their songs on the Christmas album the chorale groups made.

Festival In

the Spring, was one of the things that Advanced Girls' Choir prepared for. London Bridge, the Christmas program and a Spring Concert were some of the other events the girls participated in. Their best Christmas selections were recorded in the chorale groups record album.

Activities

for the Eisenhower Wind Ensemble included a combined Winter concert with Colton High School's Band. From these songs a record was made. The band played a concert for Rialto Junior High School to recruit new members for the future band. The Wind Ensemble attended the District Festival in April held at Chaffey College. A few members of the band performed for the Medieval Center Convalescent Home and the Inland Empire Invitational Karate Championship. The groups enjoyed an ice skating party and a trip to Catalina. In April they presented a Spring concert. The bands ended the year by playing for graduation.

Eisenhower's stageband was not a rock group. The stageband played jazz interpretations of songs in concerts starting with their first concert in March. During both March and April the stageband competed in contest with several other bands including Valley College's stageband.

The stageband also participated with the Madrigal singers in a Pop concert. The Orchestra was small but talented this year. They played a range of music from classical to chamber. First violinist, Mary Cothern, performed a solo at the Band Banquet.

Calif. 500

visited by the Eisenhower Marching Band was just one of the many events they participated in. After their summer session, the band, under the leadership of drum majors, Ed Hill and Randy Thomas, performed at football games and in several parades. The Chaffey Tournament of Bands presented a new challenge. Executing skill on the drill field, the band joined several groups for the Chaffey Band Pageant. The San Bernardino Christmas Parade and the Riverside 500 Parade were an example of the different themes band prepared for. Mr. Karlton Hester, the band director, encouraged united effort.

Eagle's Eye

newspaper staff set high goals for themselves. They not only wanted to inform people of the news, but through their articles and editorials, encouraged everyone to become involved. To improve their newspaper, the staff participated in several writing competitions and workshops. Aleda Quiroz and John Barker, co-editors, encouraged the staff to be honest and write simply. Mrs. Joyce Miller, the Eagle's Eye advisor, stressed the fact that the newspaper should be educational as well as entertaining. They sponsored several fund raising projects, including a tricycle race. The Eagle's Eye gave everyone a chance to be involved.

"Complete Representation"

"That was our goal," as Mark Shepherd put it. The Aquila yearbook staff tried to get a clearer picture of school life at Eisenhower High School. The staff began the year with a summer workshop where they developed the style, theme, and ideas that were to go into the Aquila for 1972. The theme, "Ring of Hands" began within the staff where they showed organization and group effort. The staff also had a new policy of selling yearbooks by a specific deadline. This gave them a better idea of the budget with which they had to work. In promotion of the Aquila and the deadline, the staff held an assembly in October in which they tried to give the students an idea of what the annual would be. Meeting deadlines, selling advertisements to meet the budget and coming up with new approaches to represent the students and activities of Ike gave the Aquila staff a full-time job. They joined "Hands," and brought Ike the Aquila once again. Hopefully, they will like the book.

The Biggest

budget the Aquila staff has ever worked with presented a challenge. They wanted to have individual Senior pictures in color, but to do this meant selling more advertisements, Senior patronages and copies of the Aquila than the staff had ever undertaken. Members of the staff attended the SCSPA yearbook workshop during the summer. A workshop at Chaffey College, sponsored by Taylor Publishing Company gave the staff members new ideas. Decisions for the Aquila's cover and theme were made by the annual staff instead of just the editor.

The Newspaper Drive

opened the activities of the Ecology Club. Projects such as collecting unreturnable glass and aluminum cans yielded enough money for campus beautification and the planting of Honeysuckle along the athletic fence. Guest speakers, day long hikes, bike rides, and "Earth Week" made it a fun and exciting year.

A CSF Sponsored Conference Held at UCR highlighted the activities of the California Scholarship Federation of Eisenhower. Selling suckers and washing cars were a few of the money-making projects. The proceeds of these efforts were set in a fund for two or three deserving seniors. A B+ average permits membership into the club. Membership for four semesters, at least one of which must be in the senior year, is honored by graduating as a "Seal Bearer."

Pep Club Worked Hard to promote spirit during the school year. This is the one club chiefly responsible for the support of our varsity teams. They sponsored the annual Football Homecoming Dance, attended all varsity games, provided a cheering section at games, sold poms, decorated goal posts, and were our general enthusiasts at Ike. Their spirit, support in addition to attendance was always at a peak, even when everyone else was at a low.

Azurettes' "Happiness is a Growing Eagle" float brought a first place win and a feeling of accomplishment to Azurette members at the 1971 homecoming. Under the leadership of Leslie Harris, many school service points were earned through such projects as Christmas caroling, other Christmas projects, and campus beautification, by the efforts of hard working members. The annually held girl ask boy Hawaiian dance "Alana Aloha" in the spring was again successful.

Future Teachers of America is a club to acquaint students to the field of teaching. Many fund raising projects were conducted. The proceeds were donated to the F.T.A. scholarship fund and will enable students to become knowledgeable in the teaching profession.

NFL Hosted "Ardi Special"

and gave themselves, as well as other tournament speakers, a chance to display their skills. Featuring many "unusual" events, such as story telling and radio announcing, the Eisenhower-sponsored tournament proved successful. NFL also helped finance their members at a preliminary state tournament at San Diego.

Members of the National Forensic League earned their membership by participating in tournaments and public speaking events. Attendance at these was fun and educational.

Sen-tetts Vs. Azurettes

game was held in February to help raise money for the service clubs. The girls on both teams displayed hidden talents as great basketball players and showed great enthusiasm and eagerness to win. Earlier, during Christmas Vacation, the Winter Retreat was held in cabins near Crestline, where all members were invited to attend. January was a busy month both collecting money for Muscular Dystrophy, and "The Roaring Twenties Dance." The Civic Light Opera gave an opportunity for the Sen-tetts to be usherettes. The vigor, zeal, and enthusiasm of Spring made the Sen-tett Fashion Show a natural success with many mod and fashionable clothes displayed.

Members of Thespians participated in many plays and competitions throughout the school year. Their events began with "Sganarelle," a one-act play held early in the fall. It was followed by the joining in of dramatic competition at Beverly Hills School, where they placed high in the ratings. The story theater came next with its built-in humor about fairy tales, one being "The Golden Goose." In the spring, the club presented a publicly invited production, entitled "You Were Born On A Very Rotten Day." It was held during the latter part of April and was considered by students of Eisenhower and the members of the Thespian Club a very great success.

Sobobans Entertained Ike's Faculty

Leo Club's Horrorthon Film Festival

raised $100 and was a total success. The films presented were "The Premature Burial" and "The Raven." The Leo Club was sponsored by the Rialto Lion's Club. The club's theme was to promote school spirit and enthusiasm. They also spent their time tutoring students at Rialto Junior High and were Big Brothers to boys who were fatherless.

AFS Dessert and Talent show proved to be a great success. The funds raised at the dessert and other activities made trips abroad possible. Paulo Marcal from Brazil was Eisenhower's AFS student this year. Funds raised in the previous year enabled Sylvia Alejandre to go to Norway during the summer of 1971. Eisenhower has hosted approximately sixteen foreign exchange students and sent seven Eisenhower students abroad. Through the past years, AFS has brought better understanding between people of the world.

Paulo and Sylvia Enjoy

During the summer of 1971, Sylvia Alejandre was chosen to report in New York and begin her quest to Norway. There she experienced a "new and most different environment." Sylvia lived with the Jenset family and their six children on Otröy, an island off the western coast of Norway. Her Norwegian father was a fisherman, and her mother was a housewife. Sylvia often went hiking in the mountains with her three Norwegian brothers and three sisters.

Sylvia is a senior this year at Ike. She was president of AFS, a member of Azurettes, CSF, and Sobobans.

Stay in Foreign Countries

Paulo Marcal's arrival in New York on August 18, 1971, began his stay as an AFS Foreign Exchange Student. During his stay in Rialto, he lived with Mr. and Mrs. Randolph McKinley. Physics, trig-math-analysis, calculus, and humanities were some of the classes he took during the school year. He was in AFS, wrestling, and was also kicker in J.V. Football. While he was here he had some "new experiences," such as skiing for the first time at Big Bear. He also went to Disneyland, Rose Parade, Palm Springs Aerial Tramway, and many other exciting places.

In Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Paulo has three brothers of which he is the eldest. His two favorite sports are soccer and judo. After Paulo returns to Brazil, he will enroll in a college prep school. He plans to go to a Military Engineer Institute.

Hermanos Unidos

succeeded in obtaining their Chicano studies class for second semester. The class was instructed by Mr. Hernandez and proved to be a big success. The club conducted many car washes and sold Mexican candy to raise funds for scholarships. The celebration of Cinco de Mayo, a well-known festival of Mexico, was financed by money earned by club members. One of the service projects undertaken was collecting money for underprivileged Chicano children.

Mardi Gras for Les Copians was once again successful. With the help and cooperation of the German Club and Spanish Club, the event was full of fun and excitement. Various types of food was sold along with games and lively music. Profits from this and other activities went towards a scholarship which was awarded to a deserving French student at Eisenhower.

Vocational

Leadership Conference held in San Diego was the highlight of VICA's activities this past year. In order to send their members to the conference, VICA sold candles which raised the needed $300. The purpose of the club's formation was to promote new concepts about industrial careers and vocational opportunities. The club sponsor was Sid Gilbreath.

Olvera Street

was the scene for one of the many successful activities of Gabriela Minstral, the Ike Spanish Club. The members enjoyed being part of the Christmas festivities and joined in the religious procession. They also enjoyed Paella at the Casa Valenciana. Their colorfully festive booth at the annual Mardi Gras was a great success, with the sale of tostados and cascarones. In addition they had a dance contest and pinata. The club visited California State, San Bernadino to tour the Spanish department.

What Is a Friend?

A real friend comes in all sizes, shapes and forms. He can be the leader of a nation or a ditch digger. He can be educated, loaded with talent or just a "plain Joe". He may have different shades of skin and hair coloring, but the rhythm of heartbeat is the same.

A friend is beautiful, because a real friend, no matter how disfigured a face or body, is always beautiful. He could be someone you have known all of your life, a few years or for a brief moment. Yes, in a moment when you needed a helping hand desperately and a friend appeared.

A friend is a Good Samaritan or a missionary to the stranger, but to the friend who knows him well, he is more. Always patient to hear your woes, he tries to help you solve a problem when he has problems of his own.

A friend, when he sees you, will always smile because he is really happy to see you; even though you may be dropping in when he's right smack in the middle of a do-it-yourself project. Yes, friends, when they visit, feel at ease and refreshed in each other's company.

Friends can agree, or disagree or have a discussion without ever feeling they have to forgive or be forgiven, because they know they love each other. When having a party, the finest food is but a small part compared to the happy faces and laughter knowing that friends are together making it a gay and enjoyable evening. And in the time of grief when a friend appears, it's like a holy benediction flooding your entire being. You know your sorrow becomes theirs and that hearts have joined together in prayer.

A friend is dependable, one whose heart is more educated than his mind. He knows that little thoughtful gestures are like a soothing ointment to the heart. He appreciates, because he knows he's appreciated.

A friend can never say no because he has placed friendship far above his own personal desires. True friends know that to have a friend you must be one, so there is no room in a friend's heart for selfishness.

Friends are happy people, happy over the good things that happen to each other; and both have a share in the good. One friend blesses the other because they know friendships are made in heaven and are grateful and happy they have found each other.

You can thank your lucky stars if you have found such a friend and kept him, for if you have, it is because you are one too, and if you haven't, then you might start looking to be one such friend now because living without friendship is not living at all. It isn't life anymore. It's just existence.

"72 WE DO IT BETTER"

Sr. Officers Volunteered Many Ideas

and suggestions which were met enthusiastically by Student Council members, as well as the students themselves. With Graduation 1972 drawing near, Sr. officers worked diligently to accomplish all they could, and leave Eisenhower a lasting momentem of the Class of '72. Under the leadership of Mary Dowling, Sr. Class President, the five officers arranged and carried out many activities, which included a car wash and the annual Christmas Dance. Hard work and persistence paid off, making the Class of '72 one that will long be remembered.

Right: Interested in their futures, seniors often visit Mrs. Carruthers and speak with her about the possible choices of college that they might attend. Below: Becky Jones and Apryl Anderson blend ingredients for an Angel Food cake, as Vicky Feidt looks on hungrily. Below Right: Ron Finizio relaxes while listening to a lecture in English Lit.

"That's Us We're 73!"

expressed the sentiments of this year's juniors, led by five enthusiastic and dedicated students.

The year was constantly busy with money making projects. In September, junior class ribbons were sold. Spirit balloons and E.H.S. seat cushions were on sale at home football games. The spirit of 73 beamed as their Football Homecoming float rolled by in October. In November, a cake sale was sponsored at Back-to-School-Night. Car washes and a Semester Dance also helped to raise money for "April Love." The Mission Inn was the perfect setting for the Prom. A lazy day picnic in May labeled 72 a success for the class of 73.

shone through as the Class of 74 became involved with the goings-on at Eisenhower High. Striving for financial security, many money-raising projects were sponsored. Earnings from bake sales, held throughout the year, enabled the Sophomore class to make the 1972 Basketball Homecoming dance unique.

Right: Concerned Sophomores raise valid questions at monthly class meetings. Below: Sophomore class officers (Left to Right) Michelle Lozano; treasurer, Shelly Morris; secretary, John Mace; president, Julie Shough; vice-president, and Sheila Blanco; social chairman were dedicated workers.

Left: During summer days, sophomores found fresh air and the shade of a tree to be enjoyable. Below: Unable to take advantage of open campus, sophomores patronized cafeteria.

EHS Starts '71-'72 Season With fine effort and great enthusiasm. The team's spirit was also boosted by a high school morale. Spirit was also highly sparked by the installation of the new head coach, Norm DeLuiso. Some of his ideas that inspired the team were team meetings before all practices and games, also the new concept of rotating captains, which gave many individuals an opportunity to show their leadership qualities. John Barker and Dan Henry were voted team captains of the year.

Eagles End Gridiron Season with Citrus Belt League Record of 2 wins and 5 losses. The team exhibited new head coach Daluiso's new techniques with the defensive unit keeping the opposing teams' scores fairly low in their first two pre-season games against Long Beach Jordan and Damien. Beginning the year the Eagles portrayed their spirit by defeating the highly favored Ramona Rams in their 1st Citrus Belt League game. The Eagles showed a great deal of teamwork in their 9-6 homecoming upset against San Gorgonio. The team's season was hampered with many injuries acquired early in the season. The determination and high enthusiasm gave a number of fans many highly worthwhile shows.

Eisenhower's J.V. Team Ends Year With an 8 and 1 record. The J.V. team started the '71-'72 season with an overwhelming pre-season victory over Long Beach Jordon, with a fine 4th quarter score of 26-0. Coach O'Dougherty's drilling and pre-season training paid off giving the J.V. team a winning season, in which they exhibited an enthusiasm for staying on the winning side. Two of the more noticeable players that helped give the team such an outstanding season were Mike Gulla and Bob Clarendon. Their fine display of sportsmanship and skill helped to make the J.V. team successful in the '71-'72 season. Steve Scott and Bob Clarendon were the captains who led their team in its outstanding performance.

E.H.S. Sophomore Team Showed Great

enthusiasm and good teamwork in their '71-'72 season. One example of their skill and teamwork was demonstrated in their 30-0 upset over the Romona Rams. Another exhibit of fine training and good coaching by coach Smaha was the 28-6 victory over the Terriers. Great spirit and strong enthusiasm prevailed throughout the entire season, making each game a fine show of ability and sportsmanship. This year's soph. team displayed a high quality of football action in each game, making a worthwhile show. Two new assistant coaches were introduced to Ike this year; Coach Grenfell and Coach Mohler. Both did a great job of coaching.

The Varsity Cross-Country Team, Found

intense competition in the sport which the Eisenhower Harriers have dominated for the past two years, with unblemished records. With the same fervor to uphold their previous years' reputation, the Harriers ran many miles every day. Practice started in summer, giving the runners high tolerance. Again coached and guided by Mr. Harry Meader, the team had high spirits toward their goals. But despite all of the practice and mental preparation through the season, the team could only produce a one win and a seven loss record this year. Of the varsity team, outstanding players included: James Pelchy, S. Hughes, and P. Pulatie.

The Strength of J.V. Cross Country as a competitive sport, showed in the endurance of the team's members, in pride of personal accomplishment, and the satisfaction of taking part in a highly competitive sport must be the motivation that compels all cross country members to run. The Eisenhower cross country team, under the capable leadership of Mr. Harry Meader, attained the season score of 3-6. Through the strain of competition and the grueling all-out physical exertion, the team traversed over sandy fields and marshes bringing home a victory. This great and noble sacrifice for team accomplishment deserved the gratitude of the E.H.S. students.

at Eisenhower, showing qualities of a top team. Coach Dick Johnson reclaimed the rewarding challenge and responsibility of leading his team through another fine season. The varsity team in league play dived through with one win and three losses. The varsity team portrayed their high skill in this sport with a non-league record of seven wins and only a single loss. All team players were very able, but outstanding players included Jay Simonson, Doran Froke, Jeff Sharp, and Bill Stout. Many more students went out for water polo this year, so a JV team resulted. The JV team came through with a two win and a three loss record.

A Homecoming Victory Was

the highlight of the '71-72 varsity basketball season. The Eagles demonstrated great teamwork and talent in their homecoming upset against the Chaffey Tigers. In an extremely competitive sport such as basketball the individual sportsmanship and skill of the members creates the team's effectiveness as a complete squad. This year Eisenhower was fortunate enough to possess the capable abilities of such members as Rich Ramsauer, Bobby Nigg, and Mark Krueger, who was elected most valuable player.

Varsity Basketball Had Hard Times, But . . .

stiff competition and the capable coaching of Harry Violette brought out the best in Eisenhower's team. The court play, excellent in all respects, was led by the competent team captains Richard Ramsauer and Tony Martin. With the skill and ability presented on the basketball courts E.H.S. has established itself as one of the best teams in the C.B.L. Courage, enthusiasm and effort, the necessary elements for successful basketball teams, are all present and apparent to the enthusiastic team supporters.

Competition Was Stiff for Ike's J.V.'s but the outcome was good. Coach Wilkins managed to coach his team into 7 victories for a season record of 7 in 7. Their first game of the season was marked by a 57-53 victory over the Terriers. They continued with a 58-55 defeat over San Gorgonio. After a close loss to Chaffey they regained themselves with a win against Pacific and Fontana. Two of this year's consistent players were Russel Bergerson and Randy Northington. The J.V. team showed a great determination to be the victors. They displayed a spirit that kept their squad in motion throughout the entire season.

Determined and Willing,

the Sophomore squad started the year slow with a loss to Redlands but picked up with a 57-54 win over the San Gorgonio Spartans. The efforts of team members such as Jerry Whiteman, Tim Medley and new, Coach Moehler helped to bring about the defeat of Riverside Poly in a battle with a close score of 45-44. The middle of the season lagged but they revived at the end to play two victorious games. The members of this "B" team showed a strong determination to win, with a spirit to match, which made them one of the more outstanding squads at Eisenhower this year.

team. The matmen ended the year with a 10-3 record. Their most notable meet was the 33-29 defeat of the perrenial power house, the Pacific Pirates, the first victory E.H.S. has had over the Pirates. Team captains for this outstanding season were John Arnone and Doug Housel. Coach Seinturier felt the season was much better than expected. With only four returning seniors the matmen proved that teamwork and driving effort put together a notable season. The team gave an excellent show to the many interested Eisenhower fans who attended the exciting meets in which the team put forth great effort and a fine display of technique. The team owed some of its success to the skill and strength of Mark Stroud (98 lbs.), Glen Evans (98 lbs.), John Arnone (106 lbs.), Doug Housel (130 lbs.) Mike Stumpf (141 lbs.), and Bill Meyers of the heavy weight class.

J.V. Wrestlers Have Bright Future

under the superior coaching of Don Seinturier. The J.V. wrestlers ventured into stiff competition, emerging with an impressive record. The future of Eisenhower's wrestling record was in good hands, for the J.V. team had 18 sophomore and 14 junior wrestlers. These fine athletes will provide the future varsity teams with enough skill to conquer the C.B.L. championship. This year's outstanding J.V. matmen were Paul Stumpf at 194 lbs., Dan Housel at 141 lbs., and Jim Bridge in the heavy weight class. These men, and all of the team, have dedicated themselves to physical fitness and the pride of Eisenhower High School, in hopes of building a better future team.

Tracksters Give Stiff Race

for opponents during the better part of their season. The team had a few setbacks, losing two out of the first three meets between Redlands and Upland. When Eagles met with Pacific however, they won with a large margin of 88-26. This was the fourth consecutive year Eisenhower had won over Chaffey, 67-51. Ken Jones, the number one man on the team, showed his great versatility on the field in running and jumping, in almost every meet. There were some very fine participants in many events during the track meets. This reflected the strict, hardworking effort of the track team's Coach Daluiso.

Under the guidance of Coach Norm Daluiso, potentials were tried to their fullest and new goals set for each team member. Victory Flag Flies Again in honor of Coach King's varsity baseball team's 7-6 triumph over Redland's Terriers. The season got off to a great start with a 6-0 win against Rubidoux, but slowed with a loss to Covina. The team got it together for two more victories, the first was 5-4 against Charter Oaks and the second was an overwhelming 9-0 success over Baldwin Park. Part of these accomplishments belong to the stamina and competence of pitchers, Dennis Blair and Bruce Claude, outfielder, Scott Williams, third baseman, Rob Challinor and shortstop, Steve Cox.

Successful Season for

J.V. baseball began with a 6-6 tie with Rubidoux Falcons and went on to an overwhelming victory over Covina with a devastating score of 8-2. The Junior Varsity players winning team gave high hopes for next year's Varsity. Much of this season's victories were due to Coach Wilkins' rigorous training and high morale among the team members. A few of the more consistent players who contributed to the team's triumphs were — outfielder Mike Preston, who also played Varsity, and third baseman Dave Espinosa.

Total Effort Was the Key to success for the Sophomore team. Although the start of the season was marked with a few defeats, the competence and techniques of such players as outfielder Bill Cullen; pitcher, Kevin Steinmetz; and catcher, Tim Medley, helped to keep the opposing scores low. Right fielder Bruce White and second baseman Marty Stone were two of the batters who helped to keep Ike victorious throughout the season.

Impressive Season for Ike Golfers gave Eisenhower students a good example of how a comparatively small team can be victorious with enough sportsmanship and endless hard work. The season reflected such perseverance in its record of a vast majority of wins. Even with the loss of four top players from last season, such golfers as Ted Rehwald, Bruce Duff, Larry Flock and Eric Yakel provided opponents with fine competition.

Eagle's Tennis Team Wins

second C.B.L. match with a 15-13 defeat over San Gorgonio. The team started the season off with a loss to Redlands but revived to win in their second match. The individual effort of the members made up the success of the whole unit. The tennis team's season was boosted by the abilities and determination of players such as, seniors Chris Tallman and Mark Shepherd. This year's outstanding juniors were Jeff Litka, Wayne Mendel, and Don Urena. One of the strongest forces behind the team's triumph was the coaching of Doug Smith, who proved to be as willing and optimistic as the team.

Second Swimming Season Was successful. The team began with disappointing losses to Redlands and Chaffey, but bounced back to overpower Riversive Poly 50-45 in their greatest victory of the year. They won the next four meets easily before losing the final one to Ramona. Some of the outstanding swimmers were Doren Froke, Andy Shapiro, Geoffry Sharp, and Bill Stout. Sharp also qualified for the Nationals as part of an AAU relay team. Coach Dick Johnson did a great job with the team. Practice spoke for itself in the improvement of the swimmers' times.

Faculty

Security, Warmth, and Reassurance Are characteristics given to the classroom in which she teaches. Enthusiastic and cheerful, the outdated Shakespearean vocabulary and sometimes incomprehensible English customs assume new meanings when taught in a realm of ease. Eager to individually know each student, she breaks down previously formed barriers between student and teacher. She also creates a feeling of close friendships between herself and her students. As a result, this teacher has been nicknamed "Mother" by both students and her fellow colleagues. We, the students of Eisenhower High, acknowledge these fine attributes honoring Mrs. Bonne Rucker in the 1972 Aquila.

Top: Mrs. Rucker talks with her fellow faculty members during a conference period.

Left: The money is counted and final plans are made for an English Department trip.

Knowledge, Ability, and Humorous Wit

describe well the personality of this teacher. Daily undertaking the task of keeping his students attentive, he combines humor with the unheard-of and fiction with facts to make interesting the classroom discussions and lectures. His eagerness to hear new ideas and interpretations from his students is always evident, although self-classified as an "eliteist." Without losing the respect of his students, he often engages in the word-game of "invitation — retaliation," and always seems to have the last word. In recognition of these qualities, which represent those of a great teacher, we honor Mr. George Foster in the 1972 Aquila.

Open Campus Proved to Be a Big Success in the opinion of Mr. Albert J. Keegan, principal of Eisenhower. His eighth year at Ike saw the students enjoying a selection of various eating places and a new sense of freedom. In spite of some minor problems, Mr. Keegan found the students and the community to be very cooperative in making Open Campus function successfully.

As for this year's Student Council objective, a beautified campus, Mr. Keegan was both pleased and hopeful. Work is in progress on Eisenhower's surroundings, and further planning will soon bring Eisenhower modern facilities, and, with luck, a sparkling stadium. Mr. Keegan anticipated many fulfilled prospects within the coming year.

Mr. Harold Kinser, New to Eisenhower from Berkeley, joined the faculty as Student Council Advisor. With the belief that Student Council has valuable ideas, he considered his role as one who aids students over rough areas yet encourages them to handle all activities.

Mrs. Helen Dollahan organized the new registration system this year in which students selected their teachers along with the courses.

Continuing as a member of the Ike Administration in his new job of Athletic Director was Mr. Walter Wohlers. Finding his new position relaxed and enjoyable, Mr. Wohlers was optimistic of next year's sports, particularly football.

Curriculum Improvements and Additions were credited to the hardworking, dedicated members of the Rialto Schools Administrative Board, in conjunction with concerned students' and teachers' effort. The expiration of three board members' terms prompted an electorial race, complete with campaign slogans and backers. The installment of Dr. Ernest Garcia as the board's newest member, along with the reinstatement of Mr. Clyde Dresser as chairman, set the board in working order for the upcoming 1971-1972 school year.

Counselors Were Ready to Meet Needs of the students at Ike once again this year. Although the new system of registration saved time, such demanding chores as readmittances, recording, and listening to gripes and individual problems kept the counselors constantly attentive. Willing to help with activities, some counselors found time to sponsor clubs at Ike. Tending to C.S.F. was Mrs. Kuiper, and Mr. Camarigg and Mr. Snyder sponsored the Junior Class. Mr. Snyder also was involved with Mr. Stark in the continuing Work Experience program.

New, Improved Facilities for English were greeted by the student body during midyear. Expansion to meet the Senior reading requirement came in the form of a new reading center which included a library and ample equipment. The remodeled sections were a great aid to both Seniors and Juniors, who were in the elective English system, in which a wide range of courses was offered: everything from World Classics to Pop Culture. Head of the department, Mr. David Sexton, felt that the flaws of this unique system were finally being remedied. Classes were categorized into five levels of difficulty, which aided students in selecting subjects that suited their level of learning.

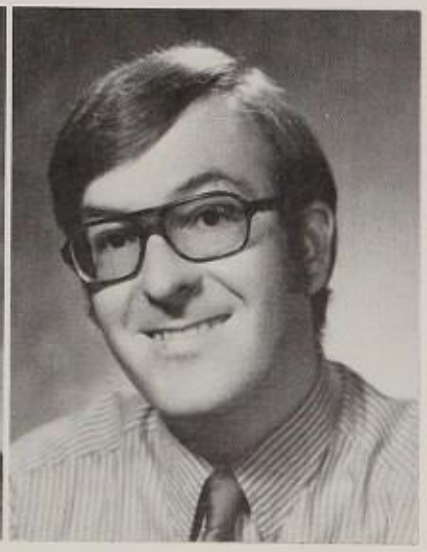
Journalism Extended as Vocational Class at Ike

Left: Mr. David Sexton enjoys free period after day of Advanced Placement English, Science Fiction, and Independent Reading classes. Below: Seniors Pat Norris and Aleda Quiroz discuss a recent Eagle's Eye issue with Mrs. Joyce Miller, newspaper's sponsor. Mrs. Miller is also instructor of the Media and Creative Writing classes. The Journalism classes serve to inform the school and also provide job experience. Bottom, From Left: Mrs. Paula Ervin, Mrs. Katherine Gold, Mr. Richard Bushong. Mrs. Ervin teaches Drama.



Big Changes in History

classes were introduced at the semester. As in English, classes were offered on different levels to help students pick classes suitable to learning ability. New classes included Black Studies, Chicano Studies, and California History. In offering these classes Ike students were given a wider variety of classes to choose from.

Mr. Harry Meader was new this year as department head. He has taught here at Eisenhower for four years.

Ike Students Discover History Is Now

Top Left: Mr. Jeff Perkins. Top Right: Mr. Hurley and fourth period U.S. History class relate present problems to those that have occurred in the past. By this students find the importance of studying history. Above Left: Mr. Joaquin Hernandez. Directly Left: Mr. Cable sits aside to enjoy a report in U.S. History. He sponsors the Junior Class.

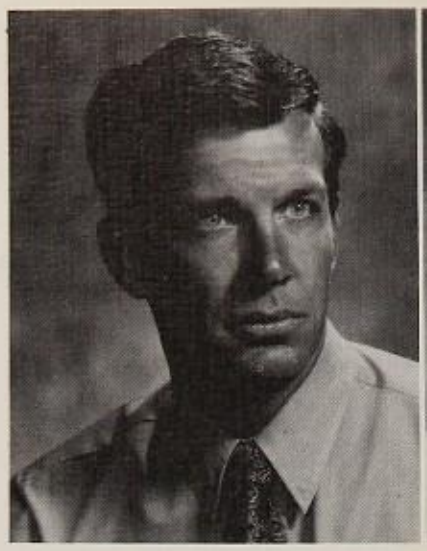
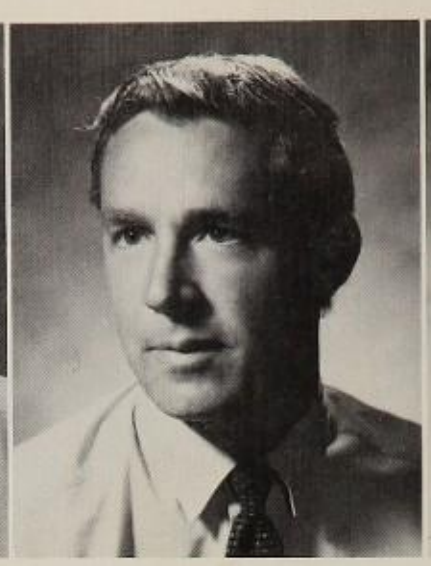
Life Science Classes for Sophomores were introduced as a new part of science curriculum this year. With Mr. Sitzman as instructor, these classes offered a different view of biology to sophomores. Another new class was I.S.C.S. Chemistry, taught by Mr. Cannon. Much like Life Science, the course presented new scopes in science education.





Top, left to right: Mr. Gordon Nicholson, Mr. Floyd Cannon, and Mr. George Fleming. Right: Mr. Roger Massaro clarifies a question for junior Wayne Mindle in fourth period Chemistry. Mr. Massaro instructs four Chemistry classes as well as Chemistry "C."

Steve, I don't know how I would have made it without you this year. I owe you one thing: I have gotten so much more exercise walking to school. Thanks so much for the rides. I really appreciated it. See ya this summer, you know at all the staff meetings, you better show up. Good-luck with your pictures next year.

Love always,
Cookie Burton

Facelift for Media Center

took place at the semester. The new look for the library and audio visual department included new paint, carpeting, shelves, tables, and chairs. Also thousands of new hardback books came to Ike, along with fabulous new equipment that offered new horizons in learning. A special Viewing and Listening Center was created for students. Here students could check out film loops on athletic form, art prints, records which catered to every taste, and tape casettes for home listening. The new aspects of the Media Center proved to be very useful to everyone at Eisenhower.

Proficiency Tests Added

to determine individual math skills was the main change this year in the Eisenhower Math Department. Those people who fail to meet the standards of the test are required to take a review course to help sharpen ability in mathematics. Second semester classes offered first semester Geometry skills for those who found obstacles. Otherwise the department, headed by Mrs. Wanda Mahoney, continued much as before. Facility plans for the future, including a computer, are hoped to be realized next year.

A Flood of New Materials and Firsthand Experience enabled students to taste a bit of the culture of foreign lands. Teachers in the Language Department introduced comic strips and fairy tales in the French, Spanish, and German languages, as well as native magazines. Students also enjoyed a wealth of foreign language records, filmstrips, and guest speakers.

The Language Department saw the need not only for new materials but also for firsthand experience. Ballets, museums, and plays helped students see their language in use. Miss Emma Gilmetti continued as a devoted, earnest department head.

Newspapers, Aluminum, and Service projects were just a few of the outside interests that Mrs. Kathy Schocklee, Mr. Harry Craig and Mr. Leon McGarrah, along with their students, expressed. Working toward financing a trip to San Francisco, the students involved in the Special Education program participated in many money-making, as well as service, projects that not only added to their funds, but helped the community as well. At the same time, Mr. Craig, Mr. McGarrah, and Mrs. Schocklee did not forget their duty to teach, and tried many unusual, and different techniques.

Exploration of Music and Art Syndrome was undertaken by the large number of students involved in Ike's art and music courses. Concentrating on parallels between past and present, classical and jazz instrumentals were scored by Mr. Karlton Hester, while under the direction of Mr. Robert Hemstreet, both psalms and pop tunes were sung. Art instructors, headed by Mr. Paul Muckenfuss, encouraged the reproduction of art dating from medieval and colonial times, as well as contemporary, abstract designs.

Individual Creativity and Skills were attributes much sought after by the Home Economics Department. Tayloring, a popular course this year, enabled talented students to express themselves and create fashions which were extensions of themselves. Many unique and unusual dishes were invented in Mrs. Henry's Food for Entertainment class. While homemaking skills prove to be practical and often necessary in the home, vocational homemaking, which has become a distinguished career, was both emphasized and encouraged.

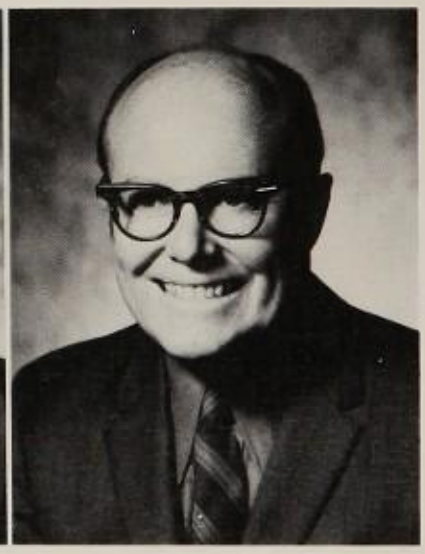
Efficiency in Business

was of great importance in the classes offered this year by the Business Department. Courses such as Typing and Notehand were aimed at students who needed to sharpen study skills. Those who planned for a business career included Advanced Typing and Accounting courses in their class schedules.

Left: Sharon Wilson listens closely as Mrs. Cone explains the reason an error was found in her notes. Below Left: Mrs. Klettenberg pauses in her speech to listen to a student's question concerning a newly-introduced letter form. Below, from Left: Mrs. Evelyn Cone, Mr. Bert Cassan, Mr. Leonard Colton. Bottom, from Left: Mrs. Marcella Klettenberg, Mr. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. Marie Smallwood.



Wider Scope of Athletics

encouraged Eisenhower students to find real enjoyment in their daily physical education classes. Unusual new classes including co-ed swimming and recreational games, were available. Self-improvement classes made physical education periods truly beneficial. Miss Fran Spears and Mr. Don Seinturier successfully headed the department.

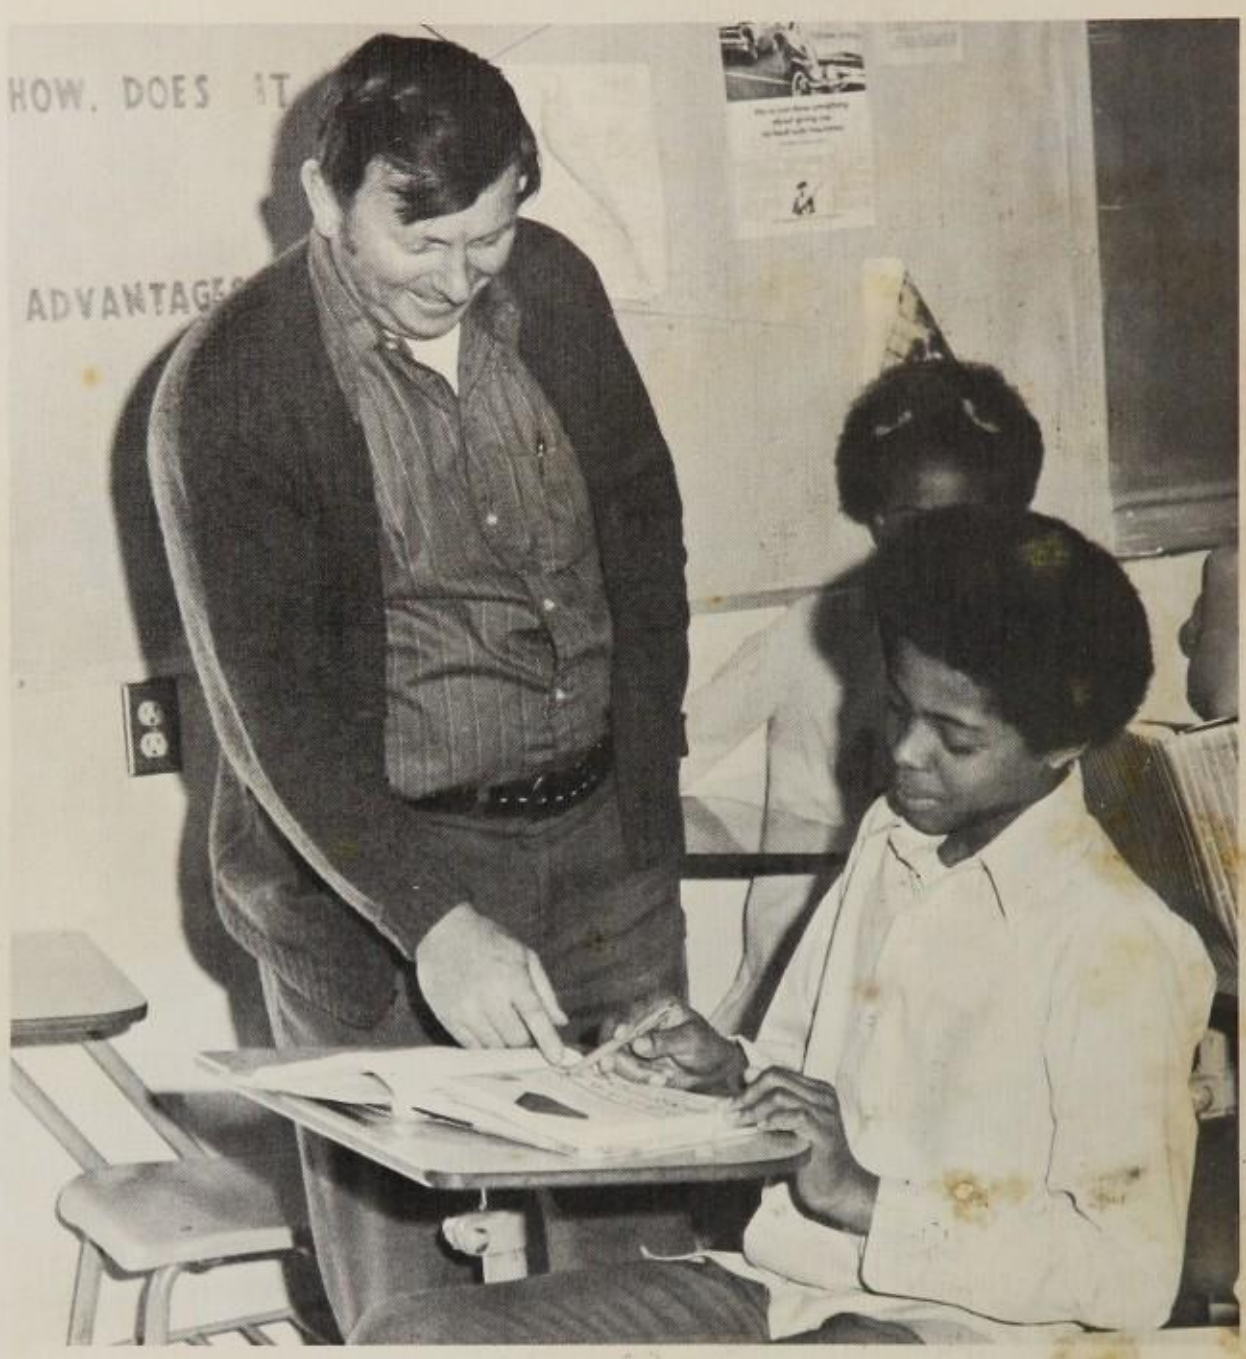
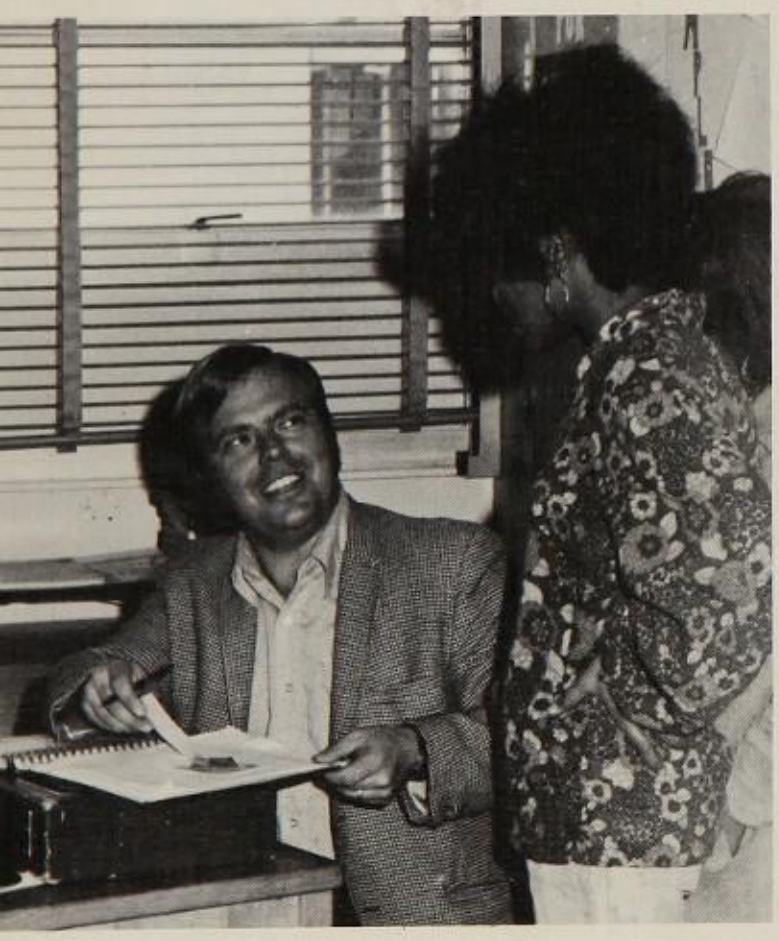
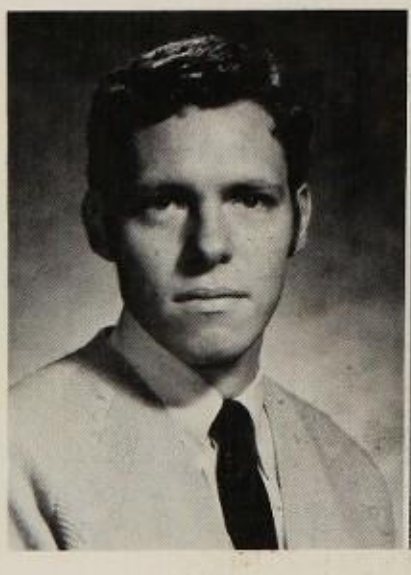
Experience Helps Most

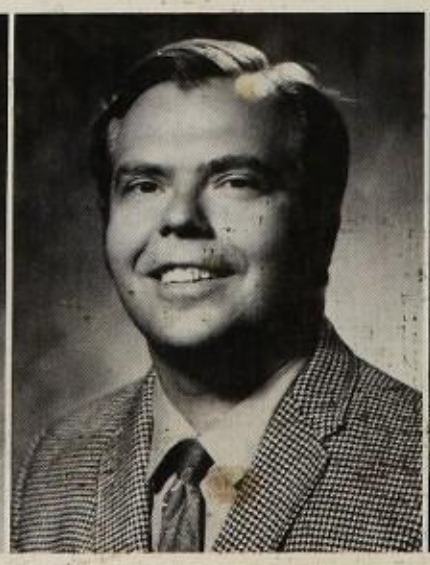
students become skillful drivers, as the Driver's Education teachers were well aware this year. A new flock of eager trainees were put through the stages of learning the "rules of the road," and then testing them in the simulator and the car.

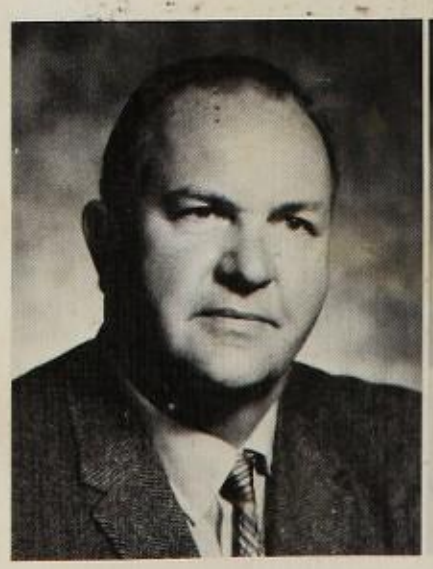
Right: Randy Bostick questions Mr. Wilkin as to the meanings of not-often-seen road signs. Below: Mr. Krutsch explains to Marie Taylor his theory of how classroom instruction prepares one for "behind the wheel." Below Right, from Left: Mr. John Knipple, Mr. Jerold Krutsch, Mr. Truman O'Doherty. Bottom Left: Sophomore Kathi Ward is shown by Mr. Smaha the proper way to position her hands on steering wheel. Bottom Right, from Left: Mr. Milt Smaha, Mr. William Wilkin. Not pictured is instructor Mr. Det Moeller.











Industrial Art Classes Encouraged

students to consider metal and wood skills as primers for future occupations. Such encouragement was evident in the special two hour classes developed mainly for those seriously interested Ike students. These classes included Carpentry with department head Mr. Roland Hoeppner, Graphic Arts with Mr. Paul Jacobson as instructor, Mr. Sid Gilbreath's Advanced Metal, and Architectural Drafting taught by Mr. Ernest Cann. Added to the list of Industrial Arts classes was the Small Engine Repair class. Mr. Clarence Vanaken was instructor.

Devoted Ike Secretaries

donated much time and energy this past year in order to keep Ike running and well-informed. Noted for their exhaustive activity work were Mrs. Kathryn Meister and Mrs. Lois Koldewey. Mrs. Edie Lindsay was familiar to students in the Work Experience program. Other secretarial duties, including recording and attendance, were well executed by an industrious staff.

Nourishment, Environment

and satisfaction were main concerns of our dedicated classified personnel. Striving to make more enjoyable our eight hour daily stay at Eisenhower, the 1971-1972 term gave way to a cleaner campus and a larger selection of food choices. With increased student enrollment, more difficult tasks are created. but, each new year brings more effort from our devoted classified staff.

This space is usually the spot where in past years editors have written very philosophical and profound passages. Not me — after reading and experiencing the 1972 Aquila you should understand what was trying to be said. If not, this isn't going to help, is it?

The staff worked hard and I feel they can be proud of their efforts. Thank you Chuck Kase, the rest of the photography staff, Bob Lautz, and Mr. X for the bext pictures possible. My advisor, Mr. Muckenfuss, and all the others who helped me have my deepest appreciation.

The purpose of this book is to give a realistic view of the school year 1971-72. Its goal was to be different — but better from annuals in past years. The risks taken were worth it. I hope you dig it!

Together we stand, divided we fall.
come on, now people, let's get on the ball and work together, come on come on, work together.
Now, Now, People.
Because together we will stand — every boy, every girl, and man.
Because when things go wrong, and they sometimes will,
and a broken travels and they all look filled.
Let's work together, come on come on, let's work together.
Now, Now People.
You know together we will stand — every boy, girl, and man.
Two or three minutes, two or three hours.
What does this matter in this life of ours.
Let's work together, come on, come on, work together
Now, Now, People.
Because together we will stand — every boy, every woman, and man.
Well, make someone happy, make someone smile.
Let's all work together and make life worthwhile.
Let's work together, come on come on, work together
Now, Now, People.
Together we must stand — every boy, girl, woman, and man.

Wilbert Harrison

We Open Our Eyes and See Many Roads

Ahead there lie many roads . . .
One of them is ours.
We are just beginning to see the many paths which are open to each of us.
Some of us believe that we can shape our futures . . .
For them it is so.
Time glides wistfully down the track of three years.
A boy's name is called,
and a man steps forward to receive the prize that knowledge has earned.
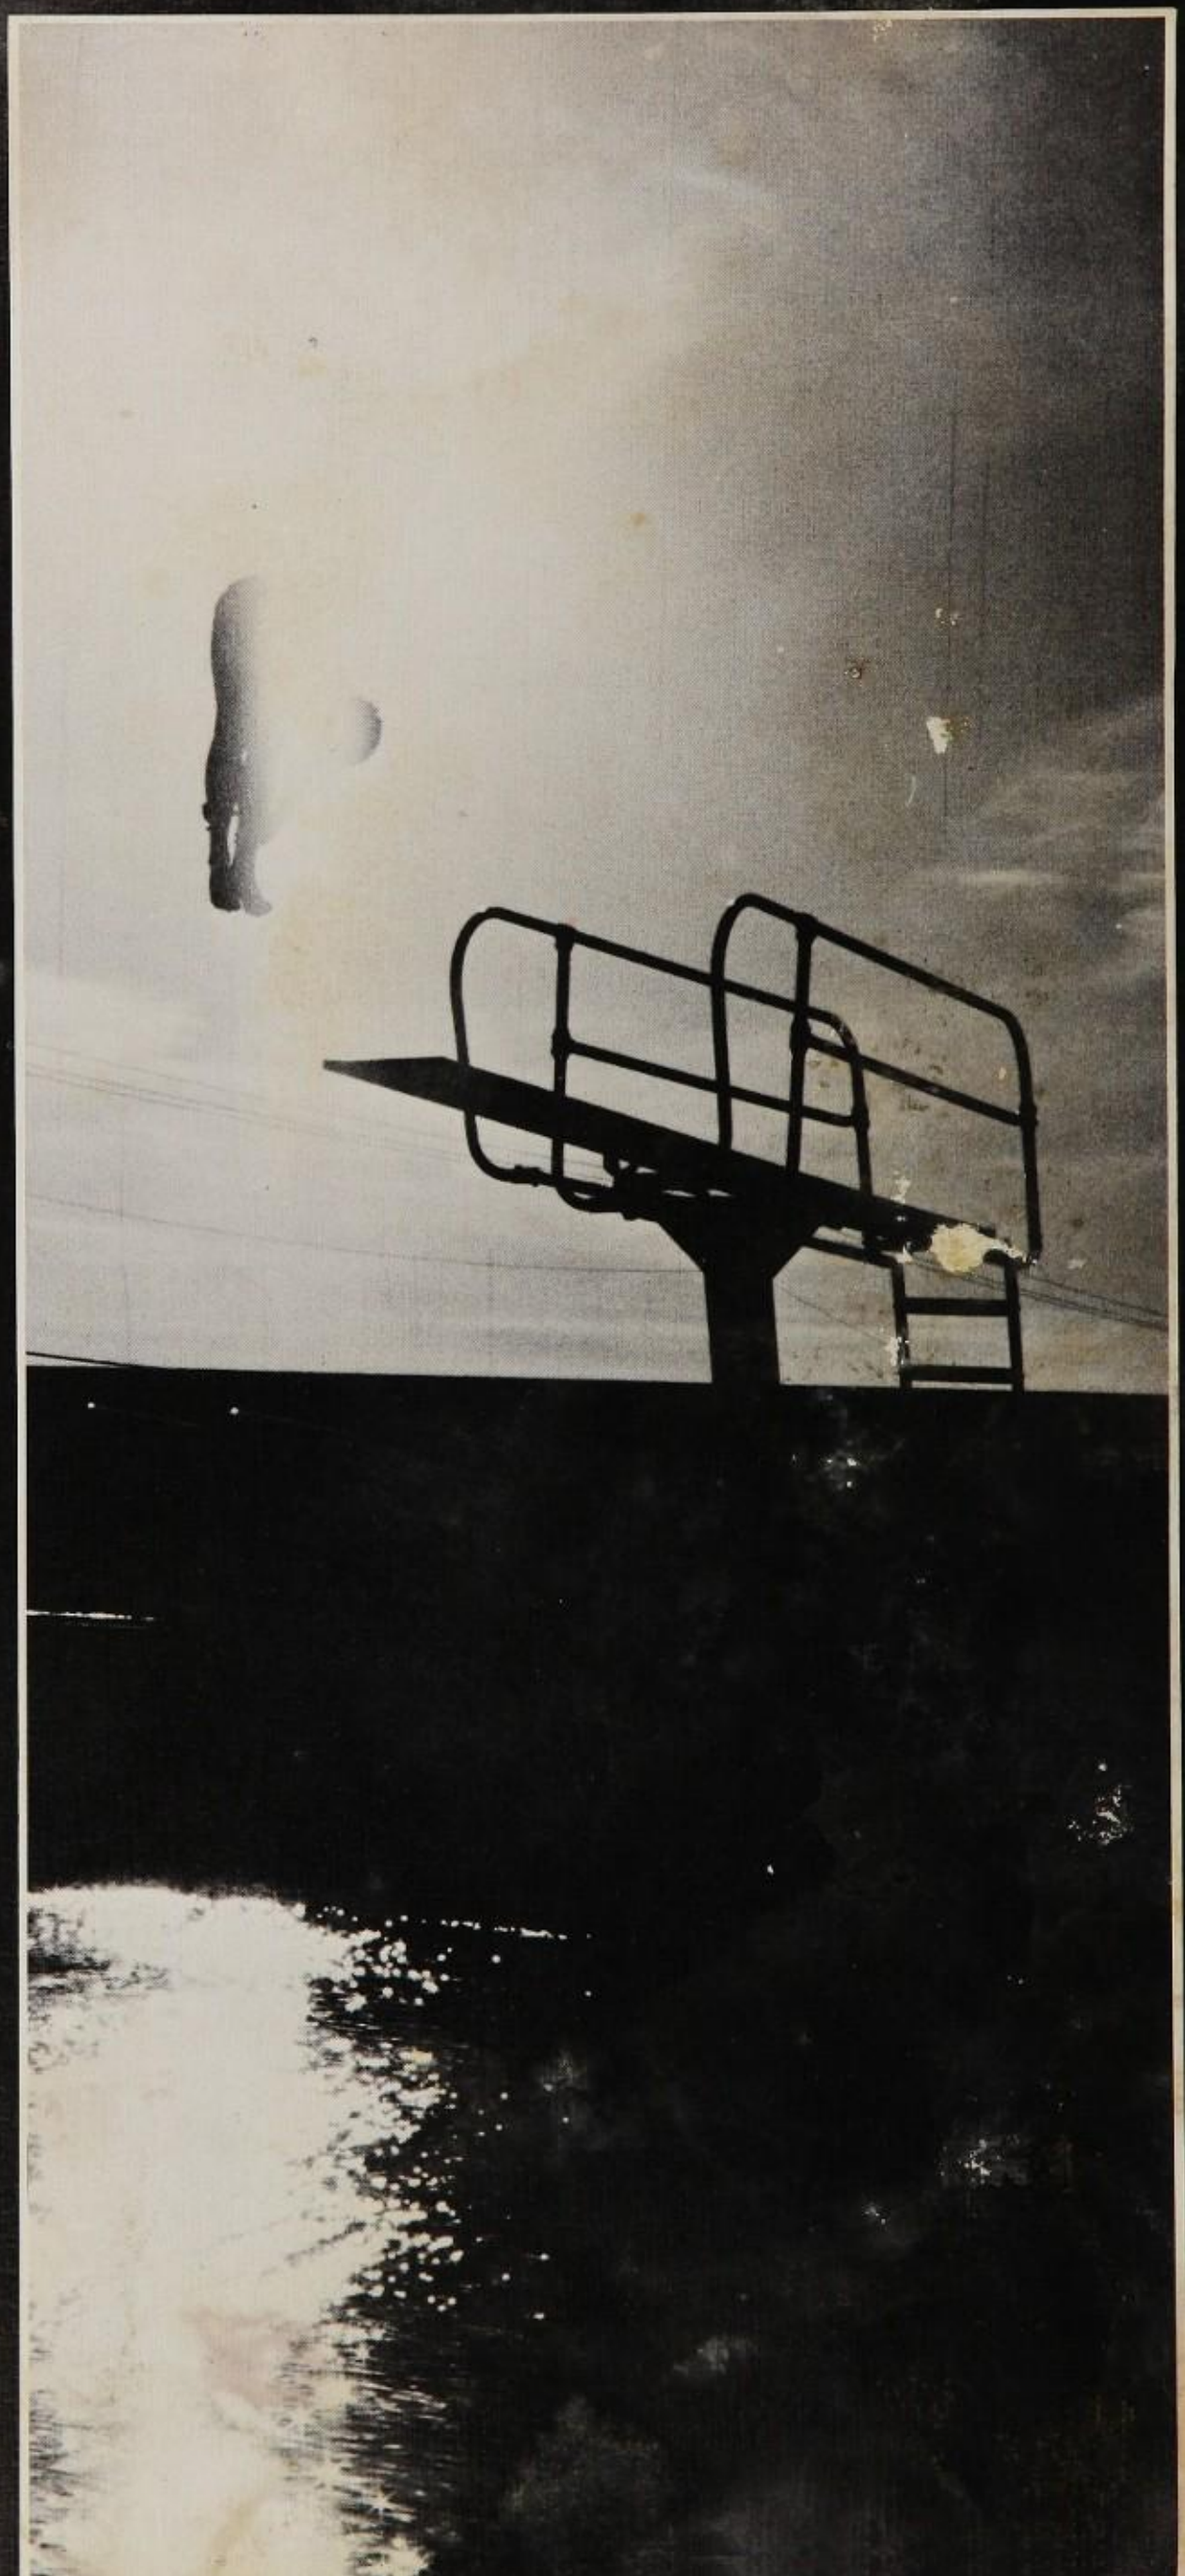
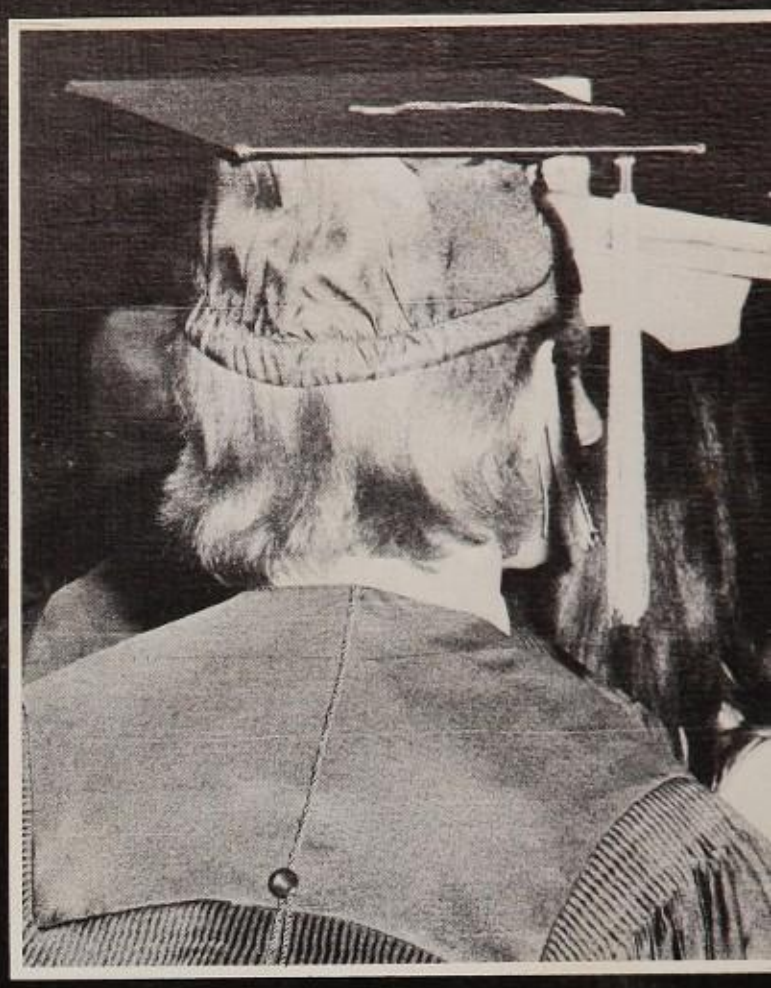
A moment is past . . .
yet a moment's begin.





Time Passed and We Saw Things Differently

This is the way we saw things, and until we realized that our time was running out, time seemed to pass so slowly.
Some believed that we did not view things as they did.
Perhaps this was true . . .
We looked for change,
Yet we could not change enough.
We wanted peace,
But others of our world were too selfish to find it.
This was our world.
We are builders or destroyers.
Our actions and attitudes mold us into what we are and what we hope and pray not to be.
Like history gone past,
to do these essential tasks
we must work together and help our brothers.
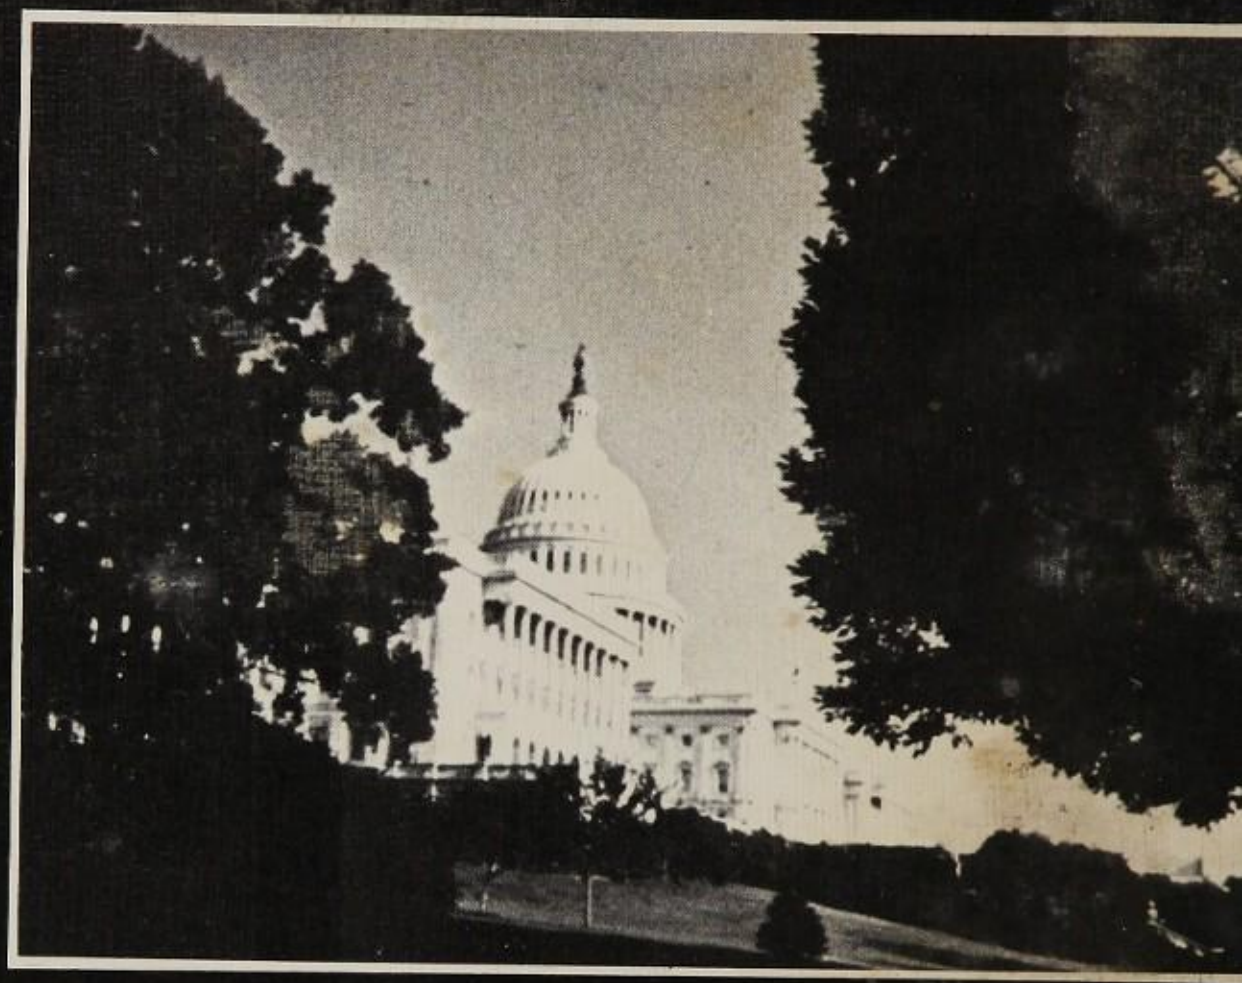
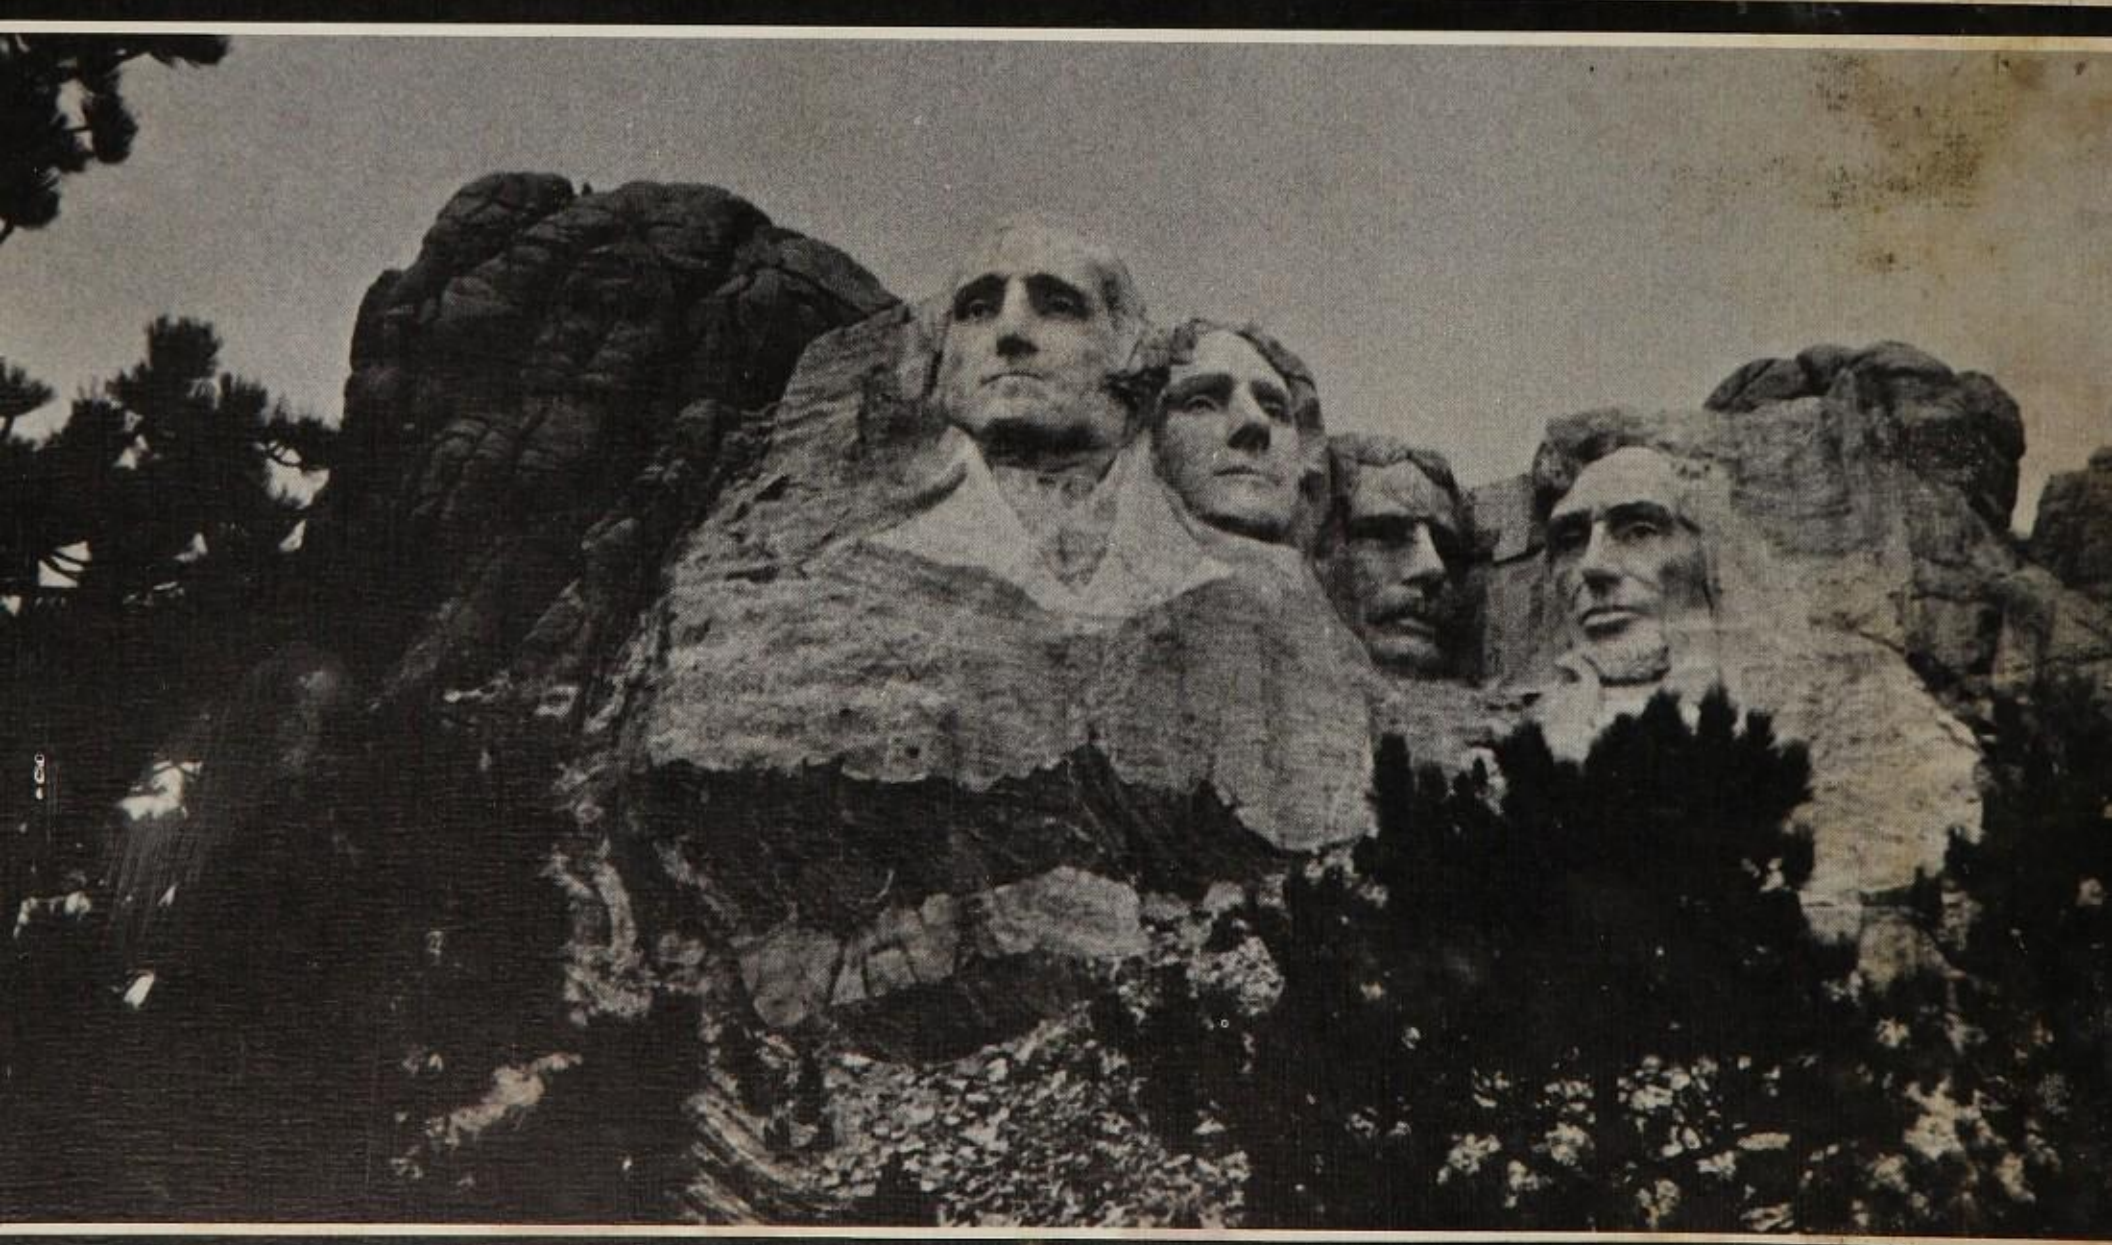
United we are our future
and we got to live it together.





Steve:
You are a pretty cool "cat"
and I'm glad you
've taking pictures all by yourself. (Dependable).
Have a good summer and see you next year in the E.E.
Your friend

COSPORTSED.

d'm glad e became r friends this yea ournalism was a strang ass - but it was O.K. I hope ou have a good summer chasing all the chicks around and breaking heir little hearts. That's O.K. tho cuz we ll deserve it - I don't know what I'm saying.
(not unusual) - You're really a neat peron - a little strange - but sweet.
(just kidding ↑)
Love ya always,
Gail

Steve,

You are the most special person I know.
Kind. Stay
everybody likes. Stay the way you are please See ya next year in Journalism.

Dear Steve
Well, this year in drama really has been fun hasn't it. This was a really cool class & you helped make it more enjoyable for me.
Thanks so much. ... see you next year
I'll keep up always Amalyn ('77 AHS)

Baby, ive this you say to person ho means as much me as you do to . Big Brother. I really ove you seriously without your smiling face + dramatic personality. It would wouldn't be le the same. Keep cool + stay out of trouble.

Love Always
Dona Chambers.
